$1.2 Billion Proposed For Conservation

LBJ Puts Priority On Program For Natural Resources

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson summoned Congress today to help renew the nation through a $1.2 billion program to conserve America's natural resources, "not only for man's enjoyment, but for man's survival."

The President put priority on his conservation program, which focuses on the goal of pure water and air, ending despoiling of the land, and preserving and creating beauty, and added measure of serenity and more outdoor recreation facilities.

The program proposes a probe of "peaceful promises of the ocean's depth" in cooperation rather than competition with other nations.

It seeks new authority to act against shipowners who discharge oil along the shores, in part by assessing them with the cost of cleaning up the mess. The latest oil pollution incident, at San Juan, Puerto Rico, spread 1.5 million gallons of oil over bay and beaches when a tanker broke in two earlier this week.

Johnson asked for governmental authority to control strip mining which leaves the land scarred and barren.

He asked for more national parks and wilderness areas.

Urging action against air pollution, he said: "From the great smokestacks of industry and from the exhaust of motors and machines, 130 millions tons of soot, carbon and grime settle over the people and shroud the nation's cities each year."

Firm To Plan St. Clair Ave. Light System

The consulting engineering firm of Glaus, Pyle & Schomer of Youngstown was awarded a contract Thursday afternoon by Mayor George E. Willshaw and Safety - Service Director Robert E. Vodrey to draw detailed plans and specifications for a system of electrical signal lights for traffic control on the new three - lane section of St. Clair Ave.

The contract provides that work will begin within 10 days and will be completed in six months or less.

The plans and specifications will cover a system of signals to direct motorists during the morning and afternoon rush hours.

The city's agreement with the Ohio Highway Department and the Federal Bureau of Public Roads, which helped finance the improvement, provided that two lanes will be set aside for inbound traffic movement in the

Auto-Bus Crash Claims 20 Lives

BAKER, Calif. (AP) — A Greyhound bus and an auto collided head on Thursday on Interstate 15 in the Mojave Desert killing 20 persons. Police said the car was in the wrong lane.

"The bus was passing another vehicle when the car came in sight," said Jim Almer, whose car was just ahead of the bus. "The bus driver couldn't get back into the right lane. Then it happened. All I saw was dirt flying in the air, and explosion, flames and smoke."

The bus, which carried 32 passengers, fell onto its side on the median of the divided highway and caught fire. Twelve persons were injured, including bus driver Kenneth Burkhardt, whose leg was broken.

The survivors were taken to several hospitals and some were listed in serious condition. Many of the dead were severely burned, delaying identification.

California highway patrol officers said they believed the auto driver was thrown under the bus and killed. Apparently there was only one person in the car, officers said.

A passenger said: "The flames just took the bus. There were just too many flames for us to do anything."

Several aboard the bus bound for Las Vegas, Nev., from Los Angeles were thrown underneath, highway patrol Sgt. Elton Lee said. Others were trapped inside.

Edward Wilkerson, 28, of North Hollywood, who escaped from the burning bus, said from his hospital bed: "The flames just kept getting bigger and bigger and just kept burning and burning. The people that were left inside just didn't have a chance."

The crash took place on Baker Grade, 19-mile upward stretch at a point three miles east of the Mojave Desert community of Baker.

Almer, a telephone repairman, said he spotted the westbound car on the east-bound side of the median and tried to warn the passing driver. He said he watched helplessly in his rear view mirror as the vehicles collided.

Within minutes "The whole town of Baker was there throwing sand and water on the wreckage, but it didn't seem to do any good," a witness aid.

Commissioners Vote, 2-1

County Plans To Proceed With Courthouse Annex

LISBON — Columbiana County commissioners voted 2 to 1 Thursday to build a Courthouse annex.

Charles J. Gause, president of the board, said an application will be made for a federal grant.

Commissioner James W. Boyd of East Liverpool made the motion:

"Since the revenue from the investment of the county's idle money in treasury bills or notes is sufficient to build a much-needed annex to the Courthouse without calling upon the taxpayers for more money, I move that the necessary legislation be started immediately to build an annex to the Courthouse."

Gause said Prosecuting Atty. J. Warren Bettis will prepare the necessary papers and Architect Robert F. Beatty of East Liverpool will handle the application for federal assistance.

Beatty, who designed the three - story addition in 1951, estimates the cost at $250,000.

Commissioner R. Max Gard of Lisbon opposed the motion. At a recent public meeting on county office space problems, he said the addition as designed is too small and the acquisition of more land to enlarge it would make the project too costly.

Gause said the annex will be constructed on the county - owned parking lot at the southwest corner of the Courthouse. Commissioners will seek vacation of the west half of the alley along the south side of the Courthouse.

The annex will provide more floor space than would be availabel in the Arter Building across the Square. The Arter structure is being remodeled by Sandy Beaver Enterprises, which proposed the commissioners use it as an office building to relieve crowded conditions at the Courthouse.

Delay Seen In Razing Of Siff Building

Completion of the razing of the fire-ravaged Siff Shoe Store Building on the Diamond is now scheduled for the middle of next week, the contractor announced today.

Meanwhile, Fire Chief Alfred VanDyne continued investigation of reports that Sunday's fire, which destroyed the Siff Building and caused some $900,000 in the quarter section of the business block along E. 6th St., was burning for a half hour before firemen were summoned.

Mike Pusateri, operator of the firm which is razing the Siff structure, said the task will probably be finished by the middle of next week.

Workmen have been hampered not only by the need to protect surrounding buildings from damage, by obstacles such as

New Senate Debate Fueled On Vietnam

Kennedy, Fulbright Urge Congress Get Say Before Buildup

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sens. Robert F. Kennedy and J. W. Fulbright have fueled a new eruption of Senate debate on Vietnam with demands that Congress be given a say before any major buildup of U.S. forces in the war zone.

Fulbright triggered Thursday's debate by asserting President Johnson is considering a big increase in U.S. military forces in Vietnam.

Kennedy, called current U.S. policies in Vietnam "immoral and intolerable." The New York Democrat said Congress should be consulted on military plans. And he added:

"Are we like God? Are we empowered to decide which cities, villages and hamlets will be destroyed? Do we have the authority to kill thousands and thousands because we say we have a commitment?"

Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield said Johnson has "tried hard and vigorously and consistently to find a way to the negotiating table." But Mansfield said there should be a full consultation with Congress before any "sizable increase" in the present 525,000-man troop ceiling.

Earlier, Prof. John T. McAlister Jr. of Princeton University, a specialist in Vietnam politics and culture, told the Senate Foreign Relations Committee it would take 3 million to 15 million U.S. troops to gain a military victory enabling this country to dictate terms of a settlement.

Fulbright, the Arkansas Democrat who heads that committee, again attacked the validity of the so-called Gulf of Tonkin resolution, saying it was "based on false representations."

The overwhelming adoption of the resolution by Congress in 1964 preceded the rapid escalation of American troop strength in Vietnam.

CORRY, Pa. (AP) — The superintendent of Corry High School, where 70 students were paddled for playing hooky, says he has been besieged with commendations.

"I'm very pleased and surprised," said Ray Elsea.

"I get the feeling that a lot of people think that this ought to be done more often," he said. He said truancy has dropped off sharply.

U.S. Army General Put In Command Of Critical Sector

SAIGON (AP) — The U.S. Command today reported savage fighting below the eastern end of the demilitarized zone and announced the appointment of a U.S. Army general to command the Marines and other defenders of the critical northern frontier.

U.S. spokesmen also repored the heaviest air strikes against North Vietnam in more than a month.

A task force of U.S. Marines and South Vietnamese infantrymen battled 500 Communist troops for seven hours Thursday near Dong Ha, the forward Marine Base supplying other allied outposts along the DMZ.

Aided by tactical fighter-bombers and artillery, the allied troops reported killing 138 Communist soldiers. U.S. headquarters said the South Vietnamese troops accounted for 123 of the enemy dead and the Marines for the other 15. Marine casualties were 15 killed and 124 wounded, with 76 of the wounded requiring hospitalization. South Vietnamese casualties were reported light.

U.S. headquarters said several battalions of South Vietnamese infantrymen ran into the enemy force about noon while sweeping the Cua Viet River delta, a Communist stronghold on the coastal marshlands. Troops of the 3rd and 4th Marine regiments were on the east flank of the South Vietnamese task force when heavy fighting developed.

The Marines, a special landing team of about 1,000 men that was put ashore more than a month ago, have been sweeping north of the Cua Viet River, while the South Vietnamese have been operating south of the river. A week ago the combined force killed 234 North Vietnamese in the same area.

At Khe Sanh, South Vietnamese Rangers surprised more than 100 North Vietnamese troops today as they slipped up on the Marine base and killed 27 of the enemy as they emerged from a tunnel just outside the base's barbed wire perimeter.

TRENCH WARFARE is a novel role for the U.S. Marines, but continuous bombardment and the expectation of a Communist attack has driven the Leathernecks underground at Khe Sanh. Here, some of the men relax behind sandbags at the besieged outpost. (UPI Telephoto)

Zlatovich Case Handed To Jury

BEAVER — The fate of Mrs. Mary Zlatovich of Ohioville — charged with the 1964 slaying of her four children — was placed in the hands of a jury of seven men and four women today at the Beaver County Courthouse.

The panel heard closing arguments Thursday in which they were urged both to acquit the 29-year-old mother on grounds of insanity and to convict her of murder or voluntary manslaughter.

THIS MORNING the jury was given a complete explanation of the legal definitions of the charges by Judge James Rowley, who has been presiding at the trial which began Monday.

Mrs. Zlatovich, a slight woman, yesterday lost some of the calm she had displayed in previous days, and sobbed aloud when references were made to her dead children.

She is accused of shooting the four youngsters while they lay asleep in the Ohioville home June 10, 1964.

District Atty. John Good and her court-appointed counsel, Henry Albaugh, spoke quietly for about an hour as they completed their cases yesterday afternoon.

Crew Reports No Clue To 21 Salt Miners

Scouts Ravaged Pit Where They Were Trapped 2 Days

CALUMET, La. (AP) — A four-man search crew scouted the still warm depths of a fire-ravaged salt mine today. They returned glumly, sweat-drenched, with no clue as to the fate of 21 miners trapped deep below two days ago.

"They found no one—nothing," said Robert Fahs, a Cargill, Inc., executive. "But there are many other areas of the mine to be checked."

Moving swiftly through tunnels 80 feet high carved in the huge dome of pure salt, the crew found a bulldozer, three jeeps a truck, an overturned lunchbox—and an empty lower level office.

"All four men who went down agree the fire is completely out," said Fahs. "No glow, no smoke."

"Moving in pairs, the men went about 1,200 feet out from the shaft," Fahs added. "They made a dogleg and went by the office to check it out. They shut off a bulldozer engine, which was idling."

The 21 miners were trapped at the bottom of the isolated mine when fire erupted at midnight Tuesday in the 1,200-feet-deep vertical main shaft—the only entrance to tunnels branching off of it.

Their families, keeping prayerful vigil at the Cargill office in Calumet, could only hope that the men managed to retreat from the fire and smoke to hole up somewhere in the tunnels—some of them extending about a mile.

The rescue workers, coal miners flown in from Madisonville, Ky., prepared for a series of descents and reconnaissance.

13 Prisoners Being Moved

NEW CUMBERLAND — Hancock County sheriff deputies today are transferring 13 prisoners lodged in the Hancock County jail to Brooke and Ohio County jails preparatory to the razing of the structure.

Chief Deputy Arnie Durham reported six inmates who were bound over to the April term of the grand jury will be transferred today to the Ohio County sheriff's office at Wheeling and seven inmates who are waiting sentence were taken to the Brooke County sheriff's office at Wellsburg.

The inmates include eight adults and five juveniles, three of whom will be transferred at a later date to the Boys Industrial School at Blackwater Falls.

Sheriff's headquarters will be moved from the Courthouse to a vacated storeroom at 101 Chester St. here.

Jack Evans, of the Hancock County Court said, visitors are welcome to visit the county jail this weekend before demolition of the building begins.

The contract for the construction of the new jail was let Monday for $427,000.

The eagle, national bird of the United States, has long been used as an emblem of courage and power. It symbolized the Sumerian city of Lagash in the third millenium before Christ.

power lines and the interior steel of the building which must be cut down before final clean-up can proceed.

No firm estimates have been made concerning the opening of several businesses damaged in the blaze. In addition to Siff's and Roberts Jewelry Store, which were destroyed, the Arrow Pants Shop, Frank Diamond's men's store, the Outdoor Army Store and Bricker's Isaly Dairy Store also were damaged by smoke and water.

—:—

DIAMOND IS the only merchant yet to commit himself on a possible opening of his store. He said today the firm is in the process of taking inventory, but might be able to open for business in a week or 10 days. Earlier, Chief VanDyne said he might allow the store to open today if Diamond were prepared.

Diamond said there was considerable smoke damage to the merchandise and some water damage, although it was not so extensive.

Four area residents have told Chief VanDyne they saw smoke coming from the Siff Shoe Store building last Sunday as much as 35 minutes before firemen were notified of the blaze.

VanDyne said today he has heard of three to five others who told of seeing smoke long before firemen were on the scene.

—:—

FIREMEN were called to the building at 5:05 p. m. by a waitress in the New York Restaurant on the Diamond, across the street from the Siff building.

She phoned the department about the same time police called firemen.

VanDyne said Roy Watson of LaCroft, in a formal statement to him, told of getting out of a car at 5th and Market Sts. about 4:30 that day and seeing smoke coming from the building.

Then, Watson related, he opened the doors leading to the second floor, went upstairs and saw the second floor hallway and third floor full of flames.

Watson came down the stairs and stopped a passerby to ask if firemen had been called. The man replied, "I don't carry a phone in my pocket."

Watson then walked to the New York Restaurant where he was unable to call because another person was on the phone. He went outside and waited then heard the fire trucks coming. Just after that, he related, the waitress came out and said she had reached the department.

Dave Sakol said he was in the American Legion Post 4 on the second floor of the building, and told of smelling "a strange odor."

Sakol said the door leading to the third floor usually was padlocked, but no lock was on the door that day. Sakol said it was standing open when he left.

Ray Cook of Blakely St., who sells newspapers in the Diamond on Sunday, said he left his stand about 4:30 p.m. and was in his house when he smelled smoke about 4:55. Cook told VanDyne he ran upstairs in his home, believing the house was on fire, then saw the smoke downtown. He reported flames started shooting through the roof.

Robert and Nancy Schultz of Ray St. said they were eating supper with their son when the boy looked out a window and saw smoke. Believing it to be coming from a chimney, he called his father.

Schultz looked out, and decided it was not coming from a chimney but from a building downtown on fire. That was about 4:45 p. m.

And, VanDyne, continued, two or three others also said they saw the smoke long before firemen were called, although he has not taken statements from them.

VanDyne reported he will issue a repair or tear down order for the Isaly Dairy Store building which also houses the Outdoor Army Store and the former Bendheim Shoe Store. He said the order will come after a "reasonable" length of time to settle insurance claims, and would not specify how much of the building must come off. He repeated the statements of owners Harold Bricker (Isaly) and Sanford Weiner, (Army Store) that they wish to raze all but one story of the structure and continue with their businesses.

2 Cyclists Penalized For Lack Of Helmets

Two East Palestine area motorcyclists who pleaded guilty to failure to use the protective helmets required by a new state law were fined $10 and costs each today by Municipal Judge Samuel M. Chertoff.

They are Robert L. Fleischman, 22, and Lawrence G. Hancox, 25, both of East Palestine RD 1. They were cited Tuesday at 1:10 p. m. on Route 30 by the Ohio Highway Patrol. The men told the judge they own helmets, but were not wearing them.

"After all, this law was made for your own protection," the judge told the two.

Dr. Samuel Mudd, the physician who gave medical aid to President Lincoln's assassin, was granted an unconditional pardon by President Andrew Johnson in 1869.

Utilities Fight Taxes Set On Korean Bonds

LISBON—Public utilities paying their Columbiana County real estate taxes before the deadline Thursday protested the statewide assessment of two-tenths of a mill for the Korean War bonus bonds.

They claim the state has more than enough money in this fund to discharge all obligations of the bonds at this time and that the assessment for the 1967 tax year (1968 calendar year) is illegal.

The firms notified Vincent C. Judge, county treasurer, they intend to sue the state for recovering of the assessment and to enjoin further collection of the tax.

Judge said he will have to withhold the protested bonus assessments until the issue is decided in court.

Ohio Edison, Columbiana County's largest taxpayer, paid $225,690 yesterday and protested $1,291 — the portion for the Korean War bonus.

Other utilities paying under protest were the Ohio Bell Telephone Co., $136,429; the General Telephone Co., $9,923, and Ohio Valley Gas, Ohio Fuel Gas and Columbia Gas of Ohio, a total of $90,763.

The individual taxpayer pays 20 cents per $1,000 of valuation on the Korean War bonus.

FIREMEN were called to the building at 5:05 p. m. by a waitress in the New York Restaurant on the Diamond, across the street from the Siff building.

She phoned the department about the same time police called firemen.

VanDyne said Roy Watson of LaCroft, in a formal statement to him, told of getting out of a car at 5th and Market Sts. about 4:30 that day and seeing smoke coming from the building.

Then, Watson related, he opened the doors leading to the second floor, went upstairs and saw the second floor hallway and third floor full of flames.

Watson came down the stairs and stopped a passerby to ask if firemen had been called. The man replied, "I don't carry a phone in my pocket."

Watson then walked to the New York Restaurant where he was unable to call because another person was on the phone. He went outside and waited then heard the fire trucks coming. Just after that, he related, the waitress came out and said she had reached the department.

Dave Sakol said he was in the American Legion Post 4 on the second floor of the building, and told of smelling "a strange odor."

Sakol said the door leading to the third floor usually was padlocked, but no lock was on the door that day. Sakol said it was standing open when he left.

Ray Cook of Blakely St., who sells newspapers in the Diamond on Sunday, said he left his stand about 4:30 p.m. and was in his house when he smelled smoke about 4:55. Cook told VanDyne he ran upstairs in his home, believing the house was on fire, then saw the smoke downtown. He reported flames started shooting through the roof.

Robert and Nancy Schultz of Ray St. said they were eating supper with their son when the boy looked out a window and saw smoke. Believing it to be coming from a chimney, he called his father.

Schultz looked out, and decided it was not coming from a chimney but from a building downtown on fire. That was about 4:45 p. m.

And, VanDyne, continued, two or three others also said they saw the smoke long before firemen were called, although he has not taken statements from them.

VanDyne reported he will issue a repair or tear down order for the Isaly Dairy Store building which also houses the Outdoor Army Store and the former Bendheim Shoe Store. He said the order will come after a "reasonable" length of time to settle insurance claims, and would not specify how much of the building must come off. He repeated the statements of owners Harold Bricker (Isaly) and Sanford Weiner, (Army Store) that they wish to raze all but one story of the structure and continue with their businesses.

13 Prisoners Being Moved

NEW CUMBERLAND — Hancock County sheriff deputies today are transferring 13 prisoners lodged in the Hancock County jail to Brooke and Ohio County jails preparatory to the razing of the structure.

Chief Deputy Arnie Durham reported six inmates who were bound over to the April term of the grand jury will be transferred today to the Ohio County sheriff's office at Wheeling and seven inmates who are waiting sentence were taken to the Brooke County sheriff's office at Wellsburg.

The inmates include eight adults and five juveniles, three of whom will be transferred at a later date to the Boys Industrial School at Blackwater Falls.

Sheriff's headquarters will be moved from the Courthouse to a vacated storeroom at 101 Chester St. here.

Jack Evans, of the Hancock County Court said, visitors are welcome to visit the county jail this weekend before demolition of the building begins.

The contract for the construction of the new jail was let Monday for $427,000.

2 Cyclists Penalized For Lack Of Helmets

Two East Palestine area motorcyclists who pleaded guilty to failure to use the protective helmets required by a new state law were fined $10 and costs each today by Municipal Judge Samuel M. Chertoff.

They are Robert L. Fleischman, 22, and Lawrence G. Hancox, 25, both of East Palestine RD 1. They were cited Tuesday at 1:10 p. m. on Route 30 by the Ohio Highway Patrol. The men told the judge they own helmets, but were not wearing them.

"After all, this law was made for your own protection," the judge told the two.

Utilities Fight Taxes Set On Korean Bonds

LISBON—Public utilities paying their Columbiana County real estate taxes before the deadline Thursday protested the statewide assessment of two-tenths of a mill for the Korean War bonus bonds.

They claim the state has more than enough money in this fund to discharge all obligations of the bonds at this time and that the assessment for the 1967 tax year (1968 calendar year) is illegal.

The firms notified Vincent C. Judge, county treasurer, they intend to sue the state for recovering of the assessment and to enjoin further collection of the tax.

Judge said he will have to withhold the protested bonus assessments until the issue is decided in court.

Ohio Edison, Columbiana County's largest taxpayer, paid $225,690 yesterday and protested $1,291 — the portion for the Korean War bonus.

Other utilities paying under protest were the Ohio Bell Telephone Co., $136,429; the General Telephone Co., $9,923, and Ohio Valley Gas, Ohio Fuel Gas and Columbia Gas of Ohio, a total of $90,763.

The individual taxpayer pays 20 cents per $1,000 of valuation on the Korean War bonus.

Crusade Against Corruption

A U.S. adviser's report on corruption from top to bottom in the South Vietnamese government has touched off new promises of a full-scale congressional investigation.

Sen. Ernest Gruening, D-Alaska, said hearings into charges of wholesale corruption will begin in about a month.

The adviser, chief of a team that has been working with South Vietnamese government leaders for four years, said corruption is prolonging the war. He claims that unless corruption is cleaned up — and quick — there is doubt the war can ever really be won.

Corruption in South Vietnam has been an accepted fact of life. Latest assessment of the situation is further confirmation of consequences which it can lead to.

Admitting corruption exists is far from admitting it can be cleaned up.

American officials have been hesitant to brand Saigon leaders and their subordinates as "crooks." After all, this is the administration the United States government is committed to defend as liberator of South Vietnam's millions.

The commitment is based on the assumption that South Vietnam's government is of the people, by the people and for the people.

The commitment would be shot all hollow if it were proved that the South Vietnamese government is of itself and for itself.

The most Sen. Gruening's investigation can accomplish would be to focus attention on the problem. A Senate committee could not cure it.

The administration has been shying away from the matter because (1) it did not want to take the lid off a garbage-can mess, and (2) it did not know how to clean it up anyway.

The United States is too busy fighting the Viet Cong and North Vietnamese to go to political war with the South Vietnamese government, too.

There have been pointed invitations to top South Vietnamese in the past politely asking their presence at a cleanup party but nothing happened.

It is well to be aware of government corruption in South Vietnam because it is a part of the overall picture of misguided crusading and juggled values in that unfortunate country.

It would be a mistake to get misty-eyed about the potential of running the South Vietnamese government through a washer filled with corruption-cleansing suds and hanging it up to dry —whiter than white.

How can the United States transform South Vietnam's officialdom into a model of integrity when it is having no luck inspiring a determined, self-sacrificing military attitude?

It Matters

It may very well be — as the late Grantland Rice wrote — that after death, the One Great Scorer marks "not that you won or lost — but how you played the game."

But today in East Liverpool it is pretty doggone difficult to tell a high school basketball player or fan that it matters not that they won or lost.

It matters, friends, regardless how the game was played.

What also matters, however, is that the 1968 Potter squad and its coach played out a fine season — the best in 36 years, tying the school's record — and the fans and the community in general have an obligation to salute them as an excellent team and good sportsmen who know how to play the game — win or lose.

A Place On The Payroll

Baseball holdout stories leave us yawning this time of year. The idea of grown men quibbling over a salary difference of more than most fans make when all they do is play a game with a little ball is not electrifying news.

Yet, electrifying comments can snap and crackle in some of the holdout situations, and this year something extra-special happened. The Congressional Record has recorded the doubts of a Pennsylvania congressman, John P. Saylor of Johnstown, about managers who make snide remarks about holdout players.

The manager is George Selkirk of the Washington Senators, the holdout Frank Howard of the Senators — and what Selkirk had to say about Howard would constitute a case of slander in some circumstances.

But it is what Rep. Saylor has to say about the situation that is memorable:

"In view of management's enviable position whereby a player, bound by the reserve clause, cannot contract with more than one professional club, it is unfortunate that he should be subjected to insults when he seeks to bargain for a salary raise."

What makes all this bearable for the players, of course, is their certainty that they will be on the payroll long after managers who slander them have been sent back to oblivionville and the sound of their loud voices is heard no more from the dugout — only from minor league boondocks far, far away.

Great Society Reservation

All those war whoops echoing around the reservation are not gleeful reactions to President Johnson's proposal to Congress for an appropriation of $600 million to improve the plight of American Indians.

Why should the Indians be happy? They know all about promises of money, land, schools and homes. They have been learning the ways of the white man ever since 1626 when Peter Minuit, representing the Dutch settlement on Manhattan Island, paid the Indians the equivalent of $24 for a 20,000-acre woodland.

The British never developed a policy for dealing with the Indians. Common practice found each colony dealing with the Indians in its own way.

After independence, the problem belonged to the United States of America. The spirit of liberty and justice flowing through the new nation gave rise to hope for an equitable settlement.

There was talk of gathering tribes into a single region and admitting the region to the federal union as an equal state. The Treaty of Ft. Pitt with the Deleware Indians in 1778 provided that with congressional approval, friendly tribes could join the confederacy in a state of their own.

A 1785 treaty with the Cherokees provided: "The Indians may have full confidence in the justice of the United States respecting their interests."

The Northwest Territory Ordinance of 1787 said in part: "The utmost good faith shall always be observed towards the Indians; their land and property shall never be taken from them without their consent; and in their property, rights and liberty, they never shall be invaded or disturbed, unless in just and lawful wars authorized by Congress."

The change in thinking about Indians started in 1830 when President Andrew Jackson implemented the Indian Removal Act to relocate Indians from east of the Mississippi to unoccupied lands west of the river.

Nearly 100,000 Indians were uprooted — with extensive military action — and exiled to new lands in the next decade. It was a time of extreme hardship and suffering for the Indians, especially those in southeastern states who had achieved a relatively high degree of economic and cultural development.

Things have been going downhill ever since. Promises have been made and broken as effortlessly as breathing.

The space age finds a dwindling Indian population still a problem, still misunderstood, still looking for justice.

TRUMAN TWILL

Purely Personal Observations

I am unable to think of any reason to spend public funds to furnish breakfast to school children whose families do not furnish it, either because the kids won't eat it, or because everybody gets up too late. Handouts for paupers, yes. But for no one else.

I recall that a little while ago know-it-alls said the Vietnam War would rank behind crime in the streets etc. as the hot issue in 1968, yet in the warmup exercises for the campaign what are the boys flapping their gums about? The Vietnam War. What else?

I like the spring-training attitude of the new manager of the perennially hapless Cleveland Indians, Alvin Dark thinks the main thing is to keep his players from hurting themselves.

We shoot off our mouths about representative democracy, but what most of us wish we had is a benevolent despot in the White House who would give us what we richly deserved and give all those other creeps the back of his hand.

The best thing that could happen to Richard Nixon at this juncture in his career is a long-running attack of laryngitis, to keep him from talking himself out of the favorable spot he is in as the GOP hopeful everybody else must try to beat.

It wouldn't surprise me if our side put out feelers to the undeclared enemy in Asia promising to talk about peace if they would quit aiming missiles at us.

It is unreasonable to suppose that under the silly equal-time rule, a TV network would have to give an hour to a candidate whose rival had been hospitalized after a serious accident and was the recipient of sympathetic publicity?

It is almost 56 years since the Titanic went down April 14, 1912, questions are still being asked about the identity of a ship supposedly close enough at the time to have saved nearly all the 1,500 lives lost. It's something to remember when investigators make noises about clearing up everything in a hurry.

It is my personal belief that conservatism and advanced education are incompatible and nothing makes less sense than to expect a student to believe in the status quo — not that the status quo is necessarily in need of change, only that inquiry and challenge are the essence of education.

Hairy talk about police shooting to kill gives me the willies, because it sounds as if they were going up against wild game, instead of human beings who also will be shooting to kill if that's the big new idea.

There must be a connection with being bird-brained, but the first rustle of spring makes me think about nest-building — about eight rooms' worth, tastefully landscaped, with a garage big enough for everything, including a family car.

Best thing that can happen to LBJ is to have his critics tee off on him now instead of later.

Just Around The Next Corner?

VICTOR RIESEL

Reuther Will Support LBJ

DETROIT — Political news is not dead in Michigan. George Romney may have quit. But Walter Reuther has just begun to fight — for Lyndon Johnson.

Victor Riesel

It's a switch. Few expected "the redhead" to rush to the President's side, philosophical and intellectual swords flashing, to fight off attacks of the very same liberal leaders who long have looked to Reuther as their own labor base.

Until recently, both Messrs. Johnson and Reuther have cooled it. For months the Galbraithian intellectual community has looked to the auto union chief as a power base for the assault on the administration.

True, Reuther has said he would vote for Lyndon Johnson. But there's vast difference between casting a single ballot and throwing the powerful Auto Workers' Citizenship Dept.'s political machine and propaganda apparatus behind the President now under siege by many of Reuther's old friends and political associates.

Reuther now sees Lyndon Johnson as a man of "vision and commitment," "imaginative and innovative." The redhead, who until the other day appeared isolated from the "mainstream" of American labor and Democratic politics, is plunging into the presidential campaign.

THREE WEEKS AGO, he dispatched a message to President Johnson garnished with words of praise which rarely leaves the dictionary in or out of Solidarity House.

"I congratulate you," wrote Reuther, in a letter to the President commenting on the latter's new housing program. Then came the description of Mr. Johnson as a man of vision.

Some days later, Reuther barraged the Americans for Democratic Action, which he and Hubert Humphrey helped launch in 1947. Reuther, now recovered and rested from the personal and physical burdens of the past six months, cleaved what's left of the ADA with a cut at those who had endorsed Sen. McCarthy for president on a peace program.

This is unusual for Reuther. It is unique so early in a campaign year for him to take so strong a position before a national nominating convention.

There have been conversations between Vice President Humphrey and Reuther — long intimate friends. Reuther knows that "HHH" will not be purged from second place on the ticket despite talk of a "stronger" running mate for Mr. Johnson.

Furthermore, those around Reuther now believe that Richard Nixon, not Nelson Rockefeller, will head the Republican ticket — and Reuther can talk more warmly of Barry Goldwater than of Dick Nixon.

So Reuther's irritation over the ADA dump-Johnson movement is understandable. He doesn't want to split the Democratic-Labor coalition.

Reuther, despite the fact his speeches are so long that we correspondents get up a pool on the length of each speech, is a realist.

He knows that a liberal-labor-Democratic party split could cost the coalition scores of pro-labor senators and representatives — and even the loss of full control of both houses.

HE AND HIS sophisticated political activists, veterans of at least eight presidential campaigns, believe this will be a tight race. And no leader of a union in today's mass production industries — not even Reuther with his 65 million strike fund — can afford a neutral, or an outright opponent in the White House.

White House leverage, or neutrality, is needed in every strike crisis involving the mass industries. Today the government is the single biggest cost customer of tens of thousands of firms under union contract.

The copper strike, for example, could have been broken months ago if the White House had merely invoked the 80-day cooling off period under the Taft-Hartley Act. Industry has been pressuring for such presidential action.

George Meany, always with swift access to the Oval Room, blocked it. The non-ferrous metal miners and refiners would have had to go back to work for 80 days under the conditions which prevailed at the strike's outset, July 15.

As a pragmatist, Reuther needs such access to the White House side door. He's plunging deeply into the aerospace negotiations along with the Machinists. He knows that word from the White House and Pentagon, which reportedly now needs an aircraft or two, could make or break his drive for hundreds of thousands of workers.

And the next round of auto industry negotiations is only 2½ years off.

But pragmatist though he is, Reuther essentially is a political being. There's a campaign. He wants to be in it. By delivering Michigan to the President he can give the coup de grace to George Romney whom he hates (a sentiment which is mutual).

So with Robert Kennedy out for the duration, Reuther will throw some six hundred national organizers, thousands of local union men, fleets of auto caravans, and barrages of radio and television broadcasts (for educational purposes, of course) behind Lyndon Johnson.

Berry's World

DAVID LAWRENCE

Hottest Issue

"Open housing" may become a big issue in the national campaign this autumn. It affects directly more voters than many other questions which will be debated and could cause the defeat of some Republicans and Democrats who will have voted in favor of it.

The proposed legislation would prohibit an owner from selling or renting his property to whoever he pleases through an agent. Less than two years from now, this would apply even to single-family, owner-occupied dwellings if the property is sold through a real-estate broker.

Persons engaged in the real-estate business throughout the country are alarmed over the prospect. They fear that home owners will feel compelled to dispose of their property on their own or through friends and acquaintances.

IT IS POINTED out that owners will be deprived of professional help in the selling of a house or in the financing arrangements or in the process of mediation which develops between buyer and seller in fixing the sale price.

The reasoning behind the protest is not so much related to a desire by an owner to discriminate between buyers but is based on a belief that if certain neighborhoods are open to Negro purchasers, real-estate values will quickly drop and owners may see their equity reduced substantially.

There are 85,000 real-estate brokers or agents throughout the country, and they have consistently opposed interference by the government in what they regard as a transaction in private property.

It is argued that if the government can tell a person to whom he must sell his home when he gets ready to seek a buyer through a real-estate agent, then the same rule can also be applied to any kind of personal property, such as a boat or a motorcycle or an automobile.

The pending legislation is not likely to raise protests in connection with the sale or rental of the large apartment buildings or new developments. In the smaller units there will be problems.

The present tenants may not wish to remain where racial mixing among teen-agers may lead to disturbances.

Many real-estate men are saying that while the forthcoming legislation stipulates certain exemptions for owners of single homes and 4-unit apartments, the mere fact that within 20 months new tenants may move into neighborhoods which have not been integrated is likely to arouse considerable concern as to the prospective values of the real estate.

It is estimated that by Jan. 1, 1970, the new proposals, if enacted, will cover 44.6 million units, or 68 per cent of the nation's housing.

The Constitution plainly says no person shall be deprived of his property without due process of law, "nor shall private property be taken for public use, without just compensation." Do the suggested restrictions mean that if the government supervises the sale of property, it is, in effect, "seizing" private homes?

If so, it is being contended, the owners may ask for "just compensation" in the event that property values are diminished by reason of action by the government in forcing racial integration.

AS THE federal government steps into the housing field, this also affects the lending of money for mortgages. Federal funds will be withheld from those developments or projects wherein there has been any evidence of racial "discrimination."

What the federal government really will do will be to take the private real-estate business under its jurisdiction and start to supervise the sale and rental of homes. It is something novel for the federal government to become a party to the sale of private property.

The question is raised whether someday its authority may be applied to insist that all forms of property, when offered for public sale, must not be disposed of on the basis of one's preference, even to friends or acquaintances, and only in accordance with a formula that corrects any form of "racial imbalance."

The "open housing" issue has been fought out on a state or local basis in referendums in different areas across the country during the last few years, and in many cases the people have rejected the idea at the polls.

Certainly the "open housing" question will be debated in the coming presidential and congressional campaign, and many a senator and representative will find his vote on this issue in congress challenged next autumn.

A 1785 treaty with the Cherokees provided: "The Indians may have full confidence in the justice of the United States respecting their interests."

The Northwest Territory Ordinance of 1787 said in part: "The utmost good faith shall always be observed towards the Indians; their land and property shall never be taken from them without their consent; and in their property, rights and liberty, they never shall be invaded or disturbed, unless in just and lawful wars authorized by Congress."

The change in thinking about Indians started in 1830 when President Andrew Jackson implemented the Indian Removal Act to relocate Indians from east of the Mississippi to unoccupied lands west of the river.

Nearly 100,000 Indians were uprooted — with extensive military action — and exiled to new lands in the next decade. It was a time of extreme hardship and suffering for the Indians, especially those in southeastern states who had achieved a relatively high degree of economic and cultural development.

Things have been going downhill ever since. Promises have been made and broken as effortlessly as breathing.

The space age finds a dwindling Indian population still a problem, still misunderstood, still looking for justice.

TRUMAN TWILL

Purely Personal Observations

I am unable to think of any reason to spend public funds to furnish breakfast to school children whose families do not furnish it, either because the kids won't eat it, or because everybody gets up too late. Handouts for paupers, yes. But for no one else.

I recall that a little while ago know-it-alls said the Vietnam War would rank behind crime in the streets etc. as the hot issue in 1968, yet in the warmup exercises for the campaign what are the boys flapping their gums about? The Vietnam War. What else?

I like the spring-training attitude of the new manager of the perennially hapless Cleveland Indians, Alvin Dark thinks the main thing is to keep his players from hurting themselves.

We shoot off our mouths about representative democracy, but what most of us wish we had is a benevolent despot in the White House who would give us what we richly deserved and give all those other creeps the back of his hand.

The best thing that could happen to Richard Nixon at this juncture in his career is a long-running attack of laryngitis, to keep him from talking himself out of the favorable spot he is in as the GOP hopeful everybody else must try to beat.

It wouldn't surprise me if our side put out feelers to the undeclared enemy in Asia promising to talk about peace if they would quit aiming missiles at us.

It is unreasonable to suppose that under the silly equal-time rule, a TV network would have to give an hour to a candidate whose rival had been hospitalized after a serious accident and was the recipient of sympathetic publicity?

It is almost 56 years since the Titanic went down April 14, 1912, questions are still being asked about the identity of a ship supposedly close enough at the time to have saved nearly all the 1,500 lives lost. It's something to remember when investigators make noises about clearing up everything in a hurry.

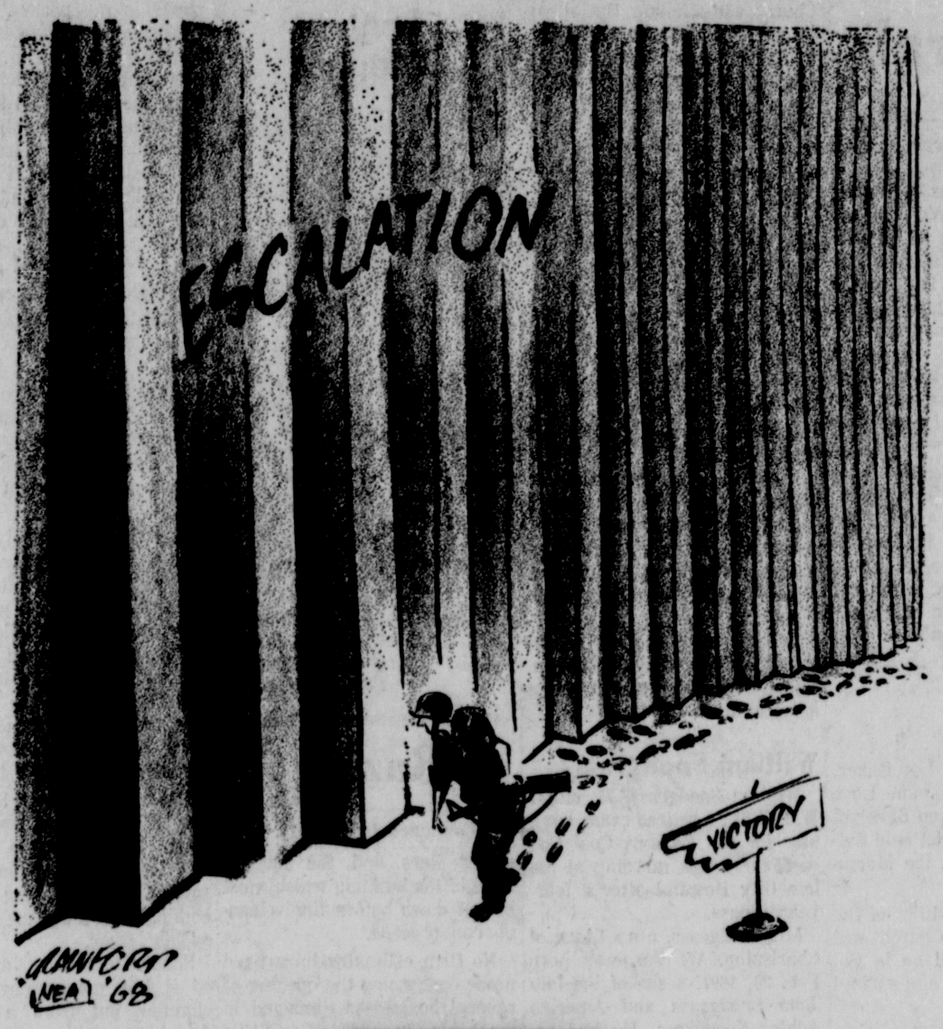
It is my personal belief that conservatism and advanced education are incompatible and nothing makes less sense than to expect a student to believe in the status quo — not that the status quo is necessarily in need of change, only that inquiry and challenge are the essence of education.

Hairy talk about police shooting to kill gives me the willies, because it sounds as if they were going up against wild game, instead of human beings who also will be shooting to kill if that's the big new idea.

There must be a connection with being bird-brained, but the first rustle of spring makes me think about nest-building — about eight rooms' worth, tastefully landscaped, with a garage big enough for everything, including a family car.

Best thing that can happen to LBJ is to have his critics tee off on him now instead of later.

Just Around The Next Corner?



VICTOR RIESEL

Reuther Will Support LBJ

DETROIT — Political news is not dead in Michigan. George Romney may have quit. But Walter Reuther has just begun to fight — for Lyndon Johnson.

Victor Riesel

It's a switch. Few expected "the redhead" to rush to the President's side, philosophical and intellectual swords flashing, to fight off attacks of the very same liberal leaders who long have looked to Reuther as their own labor base.

Until recently, both Messrs. Johnson and Reuther have cooled it. For months the Galbraithian intellectual community has looked to the auto union chief as a power base for the assault on the administration.

True, Reuther has said he would vote for Lyndon Johnson. But there's vast difference between casting a single ballot and throwing the powerful Auto Workers' Citizenship Dept.'s political machine and propaganda apparatus behind the President now under siege by many of Reuther's old friends and political associates.

Reuther now sees Lyndon Johnson as a man of "vision and commitment," "imaginative and innovative." The redhead, who until the other day appeared isolated from the "mainstream" of American labor and Democratic politics, is plunging into the presidential campaign.

THREE WEEKS AGO, he dispatched a message to President Johnson garnished with words of praise which rarely leaves the dictionary in or out of Solidarity House.

"I congratulate you," wrote Reuther, in a letter to the President commenting on the latter's new housing program. Then came the description of Mr. Johnson as a man of vision.

Some days later, Reuther barraged the Americans for Democratic Action, which he and Hubert Humphrey helped launch in 1947. Reuther, now recovered and rested from the personal and physical burdens of the past six months, cleaved what's left of the ADA with a cut at those who had endorsed Sen. McCarthy for president on a peace program.

This is unusual for Reuther. It is unique so early in a campaign year for him to take so strong a position before a national nominating convention.

There have been conversations between Vice President Humphrey and Reuther — long intimate friends. Reuther knows that "HHH" will not be purged from second place on the ticket despite talk of a "stronger" running mate for Mr. Johnson.

Furthermore, those around Reuther now believe that Richard Nixon, not Nelson Rockefeller, will head the Republican ticket — and Reuther can talk more warmly of Barry Goldwater than of Dick Nixon.

So Reuther's irritation over the ADA dump-Johnson movement is understandable. He doesn't want to split the Democratic-Labor coalition.

Reuther, despite the fact his speeches are so long that we correspondents get up a pool on the length of each speech, is a realist.

He knows that a liberal-labor-Democratic party split could cost the coalition scores of pro-labor senators and representatives — and even the loss of full control of both houses.

HE AND HIS sophisticated political activists, veterans of at least eight presidential campaigns, believe this will be a tight race. And no leader of a union in today's mass production industries — not even Reuther with his 65 million strike fund — can afford a neutral, or an outright opponent in the White House.

White House leverage, or neutrality, is needed in every strike crisis involving the mass industries. Today the government is the single biggest cost customer of tens of thousands of firms under union contract.

The copper strike, for example, could have been broken months ago if the White House had merely invoked the 80-day cooling off period under the Taft-Hartley Act. Industry has been pressuring for such presidential action.

George Meany, always with swift access to the Oval Room, blocked it. The non-ferrous metal miners and refiners would have had to go back to work for 80 days under the conditions which prevailed at the strike's outset, July 15.

As a pragmatist, Reuther needs such access to the White House side door. He's plunging deeply into the aerospace negotiations along with the Machinists. He knows that word from the White House and Pentagon, which reportedly now needs an aircraft or two, could make or break his drive for hundreds of thousands of workers.

And the next round of auto industry negotiations is only 2½ years off.

But pragmatist though he is, Reuther essentially is a political being. There's a campaign. He wants to be in it. By delivering Michigan to the President he can give the coup de grace to George Romney whom he hates (a sentiment which is mutual).

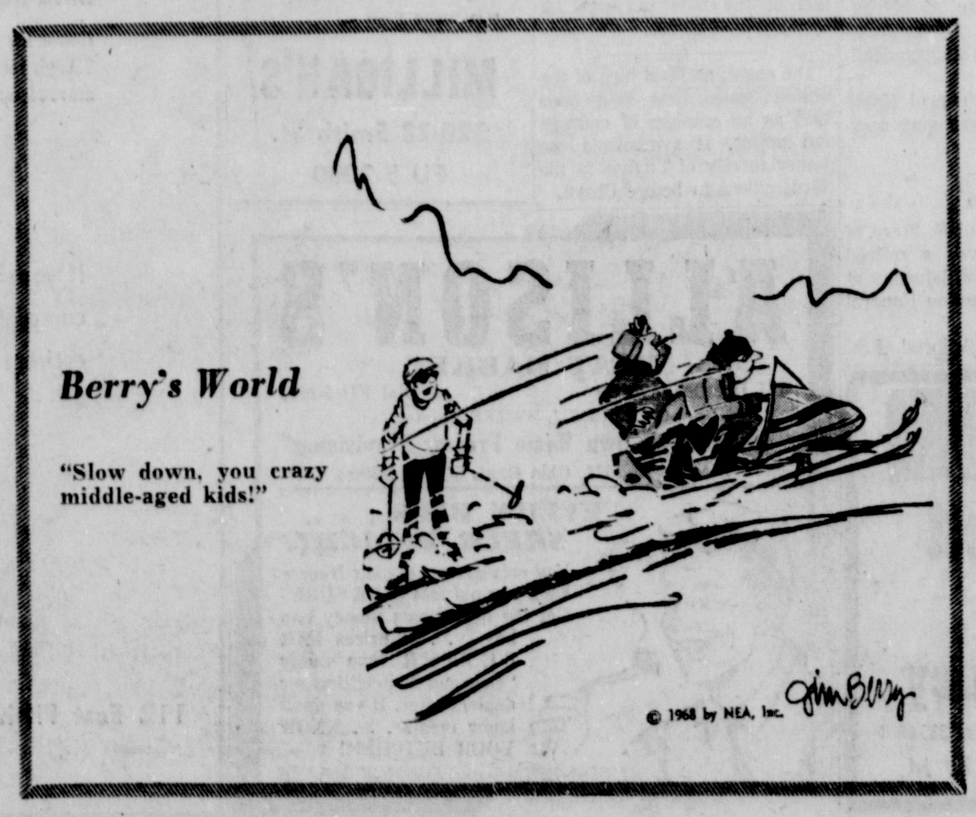
So with Robert Kennedy out for the duration, Reuther will throw some six hundred national organizers, thousands of local union men, fleets of auto caravans, and barrages of radio and television broadcasts (for educational purposes, of course) behind Lyndon Johnson.

Odd Facts

About 20 per cent of the coal production in the United States is utilized by the steel, glass and chemical industries.

Total weight of spacecraft launched successfully by the United States and Soviet Union exceeds 3,500,000 pounds.

America's first paved toll road was the Philadelphia - Lancaster Turnpike, completed in 1794.



DAVID LAWRENCE

Hottest Issue

"Open housing" may become a big issue in the national campaign this autumn. It affects directly more voters than many other questions which will be debated and could cause the defeat of some Republicans and Democrats who will have voted in favor of it.

The proposed legislation would prohibit an owner from selling or renting his property to whoever he pleases through an agent. Less than two years from now, this would apply even to single-family, owner-occupied dwellings if the property is sold through a real-estate broker.

Persons engaged in the real-estate business throughout the country are alarmed over the prospect. They fear that home owners will feel compelled to dispose of their property on their own or through friends and acquaintances.

IT IS POINTED out that owners will be deprived of professional help in the selling of a house or in the financing arrangements or in the process of mediation which develops between buyer and seller in fixing the sale price.

The reasoning behind the protest is not so much related to a desire by an owner to discriminate between buyers but is based on a belief that if certain neighborhoods are open to Negro purchasers, real-estate values will quickly drop and owners may see their equity reduced substantially.

There are 85,000 real-estate brokers or agents throughout the country, and they have consistently opposed interference by the government in what they regard as a transaction in private property.

It is argued that if the government can tell a person to whom he must sell his home when he gets ready to seek a buyer through a real-estate agent, then the same rule can also be applied to any kind of personal property, such as a boat or a motorcycle or an automobile.

The pending legislation is not likely to raise protests in connection with the sale or rental of the large apartment buildings or new developments. In the smaller units there will be problems.

The present tenants may not wish to remain where racial mixing among teen-agers may lead to disturbances.

Many real-estate men are saying that while the forthcoming legislation stipulates certain exemptions for owners of single homes and 4-unit apartments, the mere fact that within 20 months new tenants may move into neighborhoods which have not been integrated is likely to arouse considerable concern as to the prospective values of the real estate.

It is estimated that by Jan. 1, 1970, the new proposals, if enacted, will cover 44.6 million units, or 68 per cent of the nation's housing.

The Constitution plainly says no person shall be deprived of his property without due process of law, "nor shall private property be taken for public use, without just compensation." Do the suggested restrictions mean that if the government supervises the sale of property, it is, in effect, "seizing" private homes?

If so, it is being contended, the owners may ask for "just compensation" in the event that property values are diminished by reason of action by the government in forcing racial integration.

AS THE federal government steps into the housing field, this also affects the lending of money for mortgages. Federal funds will be withheld from those developments or projects wherein there has been any evidence of racial "discrimination."

What the federal government really will do will be to take the private real-estate business under its jurisdiction and start to supervise the sale and rental of homes. It is something novel for the federal government to become a party to the sale of private property.

The question is raised whether someday its authority may be applied to insist that all forms of property, when offered for public sale, must not be disposed of on the basis of one's preference, even to friends or acquaintances, and only in accordance with a formula that corrects any form of "racial imbalance."

The "open housing" issue has been fought out on a state or local basis in referendums in different areas across the country during the last few years, and in many cases the people have rejected the idea at the polls.

Certainly the "open housing" question will be debated in the coming presidential and congressional campaign, and many a senator and representative will find his vote on this issue in congress challenged next autumn.

Patrol Cruiser Damaged In One Of Area Mishaps

An Ohio Highway Patrol cruiser was damaged and its driver injured when it was sideswiped by a truck and two other autos were damaged attempting to avoid cars leaving private driveways Thursday, the Ohio Highway Patrol at Lisbon reports.

The patrol car was damaged heavily and its driver, Patrolman James T. Garrison, 26, of Lisbon RD 2, complained of injuries after the vehicle was struck by a pick - up truck on Route 9, four miles north of Route 172, at 2:35 p. m.

Officers said the patrol car was northbound following another vehicle when the truck, operated by James W. Dorsey, 41, of Salineville RD 2, went left of center on a curve, sideswiping the car.

Dorsey was cited for "driving left of center." Garrison said he would consult his own physician relative to treatment.

Cars leaving private drives near Lisbon and a pick-up truck which went left of center caused three mishaps on area highways Thursday, the patrol reports.

Doreen Kay Ferguson, 17, of Lisbon RD 1 was cited for "failure to yield" after her 1959 coach pulled onto Route 164, about five miles south of Lisbon, and was struck by a 1957 sedan operated by Frank G. Solak, 45, of 84 S. Main St., Salineville.

Officers said the Solak auto, northbound on Route 164, unable to stop, struck the Ferguson car, hit a road marker then came to rest in a field.

The Solak auto was damaged severely and the Ferguson auto was damaged moderately, the patrol reported.

A 1963 convertible veered off the south side of the road on Route 517, seven - tenths of a mile east of Lisbon, crossed over to the north side, continued on and struck a utility pole, when the driver Nola D. Adams, 30, of Columbiana attempted to avoid a 1964 coach backing from a private drive at 3:35 p. m.

Officers said the 1964 coach was operated by Peggy Lou Blosser, 33, of New Waterford.

LaCroft Man Gets Term As Drunk Driver

A LaCroft man who pleaded guilty today in Municipal Court on a charge of driving while under the influence of alcohol was fined $250 and costs and sentenced to five days in County Jail by Judge Samuel M. Chertoff.

William J. Fleming, 40, of LaCroft Ave. also was given a 90-day suspension of his driver's license. Police said he was cited Thursday at 9:16 p. m. on LaCroft Ave. by Lt. Paul C. Blevins.

The officer advised the court he saw Fleming's car "veer left of center and nearly strike another auto while traveling north on Lisbon St. at Sanford Ave." Several autos were trailing Fleming, as the drivers decided not to pass because of the "slow speed and erratic maneuvers" of the defendant, the lieutenant said.

Two other motorists were fined, while continuances were granted to two others.

Jeffrey Lynn Needham, 28, of 18 Lincoln St., Salineville, was fined $15 and costs on a charge of driving 70 miles an hour in a 50-mile zone on Route 7. He was cited by the Ohio Highway Patrol Saturday at 9:50 p.m.

Robert W. Barrett, 35, of 1530 Lisbon St. also was fined $15 and costs after pleading guilty to a charge of speeding 65 miles an hour in a 50-mile zone. He was cited Saturday at 10:25 p.m. on Route 7.

The court ordered a continuance until Tuesday at 1 p.m. in the case of Carolyn Kaye Cook, 30, of 1000 Bradshaw Ave., who pleaded "no contest" on a charge of driving 60 miles an hour in a 50-mile zone. The patrol said she was cited Saturday at 11:02 p. m. on Route 7.

The court set a hearing March 19 at 9 a.m. for James W. Scritchfield, 40, of 1114 St. Clair Ave. on a charge of driving an unsafe vehicle. He was cited Saturday at 12:20 p. m. on Route 170. The court granted Scritchfield the continuance after he said he intends to sell the 1956 model car for junk.

motive had been given by the prosecution for the slayings. He said there was no valid reason to reject the testimony of three psychiatrists who said the defendant was suffering from schizophrenia, and asked why the Commonwealth did not present qualified experts to report on her mental condition.

GOOD SAID the defendant "doesn't remember things now because there isn't anyone to blame."

Good said Mrs. Zlatovich apparently recalled details of her childhood, her marriages, her divorce, "but can't remember the slaying."

"All her answers are those of a woman blaming someone else for her troubles," he said, and asked the jury to return a verdict of guilty.

He said the testimony of the psychiatrists were based on opinions, and urged the panel to consider this. He said state experts didn't examine her until some time after the slayings —"then she knew why she was being examined."

The jury will decide on two charges — murder and voluntary manslaughter and voluntary manslaughter.

Patrol Cruiser Damaged In One Of Area Mishaps

An Ohio Highway Patrol cruiser was damaged and its driver injured when it was sideswiped by a truck and two other autos were damaged attempting to avoid cars leaving private driveways Thursday, the Ohio Highway Patrol at Lisbon reports.

The patrol car was damaged heavily and its driver, Patrolman James T. Garrison, 26, of Lisbon RD 2, complained of injuries after the vehicle was struck by a pick - up truck on Route 9, four miles north of Route 172, at 2:35 p. m.

Officers said the patrol car was northbound following another vehicle when the truck, operated by James W. Dorsey, 41, of Salineville RD 2, went left of center on a curve, sideswiping the car.

Cars leaving private drives near Lisbon and a pick-up truck which went left of center caused three mishaps on area highways Thursday, the patrol reports.

Doreen Kay Ferguson, 17, of Lisbon RD 1 was cited for "failure to yield" after her 1959 coach pulled onto Route 164, about five miles south of Lisbon, and was struck by a 1967 sedan operated by Frank G. Solak, 45, of 84 S. Main St., Salineville.

Officers said the Solak auto, northbound on Route 164, unable to stop, struck the Ferguson car, hit a road marker then came to rest in a field.

The Solak auto was damaged severely and the Ferguson auto was damaged moderately, the patrol reported.

A 1963 convertible veered off the south side of the road on Route 517, seven - tenths of a mile east of Lisbon, crossed over to the north side, continued on and struck a utility pole, when the driver Nola D. Adams, 30, of Columbiana attempted to avoid a 1964 coach backing from a private drive at 3:35 p. m.

Officers said the 1964 coach was operated by Peggy Lou Blosser, 33, of New Waterford.

LaCroft Man Gets Term As Drunk Driver

A LaCroft man who pleaded guilty today in Municipal Court on a charge of driving while under the influence of alcohol was fined $250 and costs and sentenced to five days in County Jail by Judge Samuel M. Chertoff.

William J. Fleming, 40, of LaCroft Ave. also was given a 90-day suspension of his driver's license. Police said he was cited Thursday at 9:16 p. m. on LaCroft Ave. by Lt. Paul C. Blevins.

The officer advised the court he saw Fleming's car "veer left of center and nearly strike another auto while traveling north on Lisbon St. at Sanford Ave." Several autos were trailing Fleming, as the drivers decided not to pass because of the "slow speed and erratic maneuvers" of the defendant, the lieutenant said.

Two other motorists were fined, while continuances were granted to two others.

Jeffrey Lynn Needham, 26, of 18 Lincoln St., Salineville, was fined $15 and costs on a charge of driving 70 miles an hour in a 50-mile zone on Route 7. He was cited by the Ohio Highway Patrol Saturday at 9:50 p.m.

The court ordered a continuance until Tuesday at 1 p.m. in the case of Carolyn Kaye Cook, 30, of 1000 Bradshaw Ave., who pleaded "no contest" on a charge of driving 60 miles an hour in a 50-mile zone. The patrol said she was cited Saturday at 11:02 p. m. on Route 7.

motive had been given by the prosecution for the slayings. He said there was no valid reason to reject the testimony of three psychiatrists who said the defendant was suffering from schizophrenia, and asked why the Commonwealth did not present qualified experts to report on her mental condition.

—:—

GOOD SAID the defendant "doesn't remember things now because there isn't anyone to blame."

Good said Mrs. Zlatovich apparently recalled details of her childhood, her marriages, her divorce, "but can't remember the slaying."

"All her answers are those of a woman blaming someone else for her troubles," he said, and asked the jury to return a verdict of guilty.

He said the testimony of the psychiatrists were based on opinions, and urged the panel to consider this. He said state experts didn't examine her until some time after the slayings —"then she knew why she was being examined."

The jury will decide on two charges — murder and voluntary manslaughter and voluntary manslaughter.

The DOCTOR Says

By DR. W. G. BRANDSTADT

Q—I have arthritis of my spine. X-rays show bone spurs pressing on the spinal nerves. Would infrared light help me or is there a better treatment?

Dr. Brandstadt

A—Bone spurs are found in most persons with arthritis of the spine. They cause no pain unless, as in your case, they press on a nerve. Heat in the form of infrared light, diathermy or an electric pad may give temporary relief but will not cure the condition. Most surgeons prefer a fusion operation that will relieve the pressure on the nerve and prevent movement of the spine. This gives the surgeon a chance to put your spine in the best position and prevents crippling deformity.

Q—I have a painful bone spur in my heel. Is it caused by a calcium deficiency? Will it get worse? What is the best treatment?

A—The causative factors include arthritis, age (over 50), overweight and poorly fitted shoes. It is not caused by a calcium defiency but an accumulation of calcium at a point where the heel is subjected to continued trauma. It is not likely to grow larger unless the injury is repeated day after day. A similar spur in a location where it was not subjected to daily weight-bearing pressure could exist for years without you ever knowing you had it.

Most victims can be made comfortable by removing as many of the causative factors as possible and by padding to take the pressure off the tender spot. Only rarely is it necessary to remove the spur surgically. When this is done, the spur may form again if the factors that caused it in the first lace have not been remedied.

Q — Is aspergillosis hereditary? One doctor told me that an infection must have existed before the onset of this disease. What did he mean? What is apical tuberculosis?

A—Aspergillosis is an infection with Aspergillus, a fungus found chiefly in birds. It is not hereditary. The Aspergillus spores are inhaled and cause a chronic bronchitis or pneumonia. Although the fungus is widespread it does not gain a foothold in the lungs unless the tissues are weakened by some other disease, such as tuberculosis. The disease is treated with the antibiotic, amphotericin B or by surgical removal of the diseased portion of the lung.

Apical tuberculosis is limited to the apex or upper tip of a lung.

Please send your questions and comments to Wayne G. Brandstadt, M.D., in care of The Review. While Dr. Brandstadt cannot answer individual letters, he will answer letters of general interest in future columns.

Violence In Labor Disputes New Issue In Rights Battle

WASHINGTON (AP) — Violence in labor disputes is the latest issue raised in the Senate battle over a civil rights-open housing bill already broadened by antiriot provisions.

An amendment up for action at today's session, would provide federal protection against interfering by force or threats with workers going to or from their places of employment.

The amendment by Sen. Sam J. Ervin Jr., D-N.C., aimed at picket line violence, was adopted by a Senate Judiciary subcommittee last year but later thrown out by the full committee.

The civil rights bill would make it a federal crime to use force or threats to interfere with voting, jury service and other constitutionally protected rights.

Ervin said he plans to call up later another amendment, originally in the subcommittee bill, to prohibit labor unions from fining members who refuse to participate in a strike.

Action on the civil rights measure, now in its eighth week before the Senate, was slowed Thursday when a debate over the Vietnam war broke out.

But the Senate did write into the bill, by a 48-45 vote, a limited exemption from the open-housing section for nonowner-occupied single-family dwellings.

The amendment by Sen. Robert C. Byrd, D-W.Va., would permit the owner to sell or rent the dwelling without being subject to the ban on discrimination if he did not employ a real-estate agent or broker.

However, the exemption is restricted to persons not in the real estate business, who do not own more than three single-family dwellings, and who do not sell more than one of their houses within a 2-year period.

The DOCTOR Says

By DR. W. G. BRANDSTADT

Q—I have arthritis of my spine. X-rays show bone spurs pressing on the spinal nerves. Would infrared light help me or is there a better treatment?

Dr. Brandstadt

A—Bone spurs are found in most persons with arthritis of the spine. They cause no pain unless, as in your case, they press on a nerve. Heat in the form of infrared light, diathermy or an electric pad may give temporary relief but will not cure the condition. Most surgeons prefer a fusion operation that will relieve the pressure on the nerve and prevent movement of the spine. This gives the surgeon a chance to put your spine in the best position and prevents crippling deformity.

Q—I have a painful bone spur in my heel. Is it caused by a calcium deficiency? Will it get worse? What is the best treatment?

A—The causative factors include arthritis, age (over 50), overweight and poorly fitted shoes. It is not caused by a calcium defiency but an accumulation of calcium at a point where the heel is subjected to continued trauma. It is not likely to grow larger unless the injury is repeated day after day. A similar spur in a location where it was not subjected to daily weight-bearing pressure could exist for years without you ever knowing you had it.

Most victims can be made comfortable by removing as many of the causative factors as possible and by padding to take the pressure off the tender spot. Only rarely is it necessary to remove the spur surgically. When this is done, the spur may form again if the factors that caused it in the first lace have not been remedied.

Q — Is aspergillosis hereditary? One doctor told me that an infection must have existed before the onset of this disease. What did he mean? What is apical tuberculosis?

A—Aspergillosis is an infection with Aspergillus, a fungus found chiefly in birds. It is not hereditary. The Aspergillus spores are inhaled and cause a chronic bronchitis or pneumonia. Although the fungus is widespread it does not gain a foothold in the lungs unless the tissues are weakened by some other disease, such as tuberculosis. The disease is treated with the antibiotic, amphotericin B or by surgical removal of the diseased portion of the lung.

Apical tuberculosis is limited to the apex or upper tip of a lung.

Violence In Labor Disputes New Issue In Rights Battle

WASHINGTON (AP) — Violence in labor disputes is the latest issue raised in the Senate battle over a civil rights-open housing bill already broadened by antiriot provisions.

An amendment up for action at today's session, would provide federal protection against interfering by force or threats with workers going to or from their places of employment.

The amendment by Sen. Sam J. Ervin Jr., D-N.C., aimed at picket line violence, was adopted by a Senate Judiciary subcommittee last year but later thrown out by the full committee.

The civil rights bill would make it a federal crime to use force or threats to interfere with voting, jury service and other specifically protected rights.

Ervin said he plans to call up later another amendment, originally in the subcommittee bill, to prohibit labor unions from fining members who refuse to participate in a strike.

Action on the civil rights measure, now in its eighth week before the Senate, was slowed Thursday when a debate over the Vietnam war broke out.

But the Senate did write into the bill, by a 48-45 vote, a limited exemption from the open-housing section for nonowner-occupied single-family dwellings.

The amendment by Sen. Robert C. Byrd, D-W.Va., would permit the owner to sell or rent the dwelling without being subject to the ban on discrimination if he did not employ a real-estate agent or broker.

However, the exemption is restricted to persons not in the real estate business, who do not own more than three single-family dwellings, and who do not sell more than one of their houses within a 2-year period.

With all 50 of the Junior Misses finally within the city limits, and after months of extensive planning, the fun, laughs, friendships and a sense of the scope of the pageant got into full swing.

The girls are competing for $48,000 in scholarships.

Preliminaries will be held Monday through Wednesday, and next Friday one will be chosen as America's Junior Miss over nationwide television.

Community Action Unit Drops 'C' And Adds 'A'

LISBON — Columbiana County commissioners voted Thursday to designate the Community Action Committee of Columbiana County, Inc., as the Community Action Agency For the Community.

The commissioners' "statement of intention" was forwarded to the Office of Economic Opportunity. Two other choices were available for designation as the CAA agency — a new public or private non - profit agency or the county government.

Charles J. Gause, president of the board of commissioners, presided at the public hearing advertised for the purpose of organizing communities for action under the 1967 amendments to the Economic Opportunity Act. Gause is a trustee of the existing anti - poverty agency now in its third year. Offices are in the County Welfare Building on E. Washington St.

CAC (henceforth CAA) representatives present were Miss Catherine Franzetta of East Liverpool, executive director; Mrs. Mary Lou Boomhower of Salem, Neighborhood Youth Corps secretary; the Rev. John R. Shelfred of East Liverpool, community center director; Karl L. Stoudt of New Garden, treasurer; Mrs. Ruth Jenkins of Rogers, secretary, and Mrs. Thada Thornton of Homeworth, a trustee. Mrs. Ralph Vance of Salem represented the League of Women Voters.

The commissioners will send notice of their action to the county's 31 political subdivisions — 18 townships, 9 villages and 4 cities — by May 15.

Miss Franzetta said the CAA board will meet March 21 to consider composition of the new governing board required by May 1. One - third of the board members must be from the political field — elected or appointed; one - third from the low-income group, and one - third from undesignated sources.

The existing board has 14 trustees, the four officers and an honorary member. Miss Franzetta said the board probably will be enlarged and it will be necessary to "make room" for the political section, since Gause is the only trustee in this classification.

Aide Admits 3 Forgeries In Shortage

Gause is a trustee of the existing anti - poverty agency now in its third year. Offices are in the County Welfare Building on E. Washington St.

CAC (henceforth CAA) representatives present were Miss Catherine Franzetta of East Liverpool, executive director; Mrs. Mary Lou Boomhower of Salem, Neighborhood Youth Corps secretary; the Rev. John R. Skelbred of East Liverpool, community center director; Karl L. Stoudt of New Garden, treasurer; Mrs. Ruth Jenkins of Rogers, secretary, and Mrs. Theda Thornton of Homeworth, a trustee. Mrs. Ralph Vance of Salem represented the League of Women Voters.

The commissioners will send notice of their action to the county's 31 political subdivisions — 18 townships, 9 villages and 4 cities — by May 15.

Miss Franzetta said the CAA board will meet March 21 to consider composition of the new governing board required by May 1. One - third of the board members must be from the political field — elected or appointed; one - third from the low-income group, and one - third from undesignated sources.

The existing board has 14 trustees, the four officers and an honorary member. Miss Franzetta said the board probably will be enlarged and it will be necessary to "make room" for the political section, since Gause is the only trustee in this classification.

Aide Admits 3 Forgeries In Shortage

BEAVER — Mrs. Alvie M. Wilson, former Beaver County Clerk of Courts bookkeeper, testified Thursday she had forged three checks for a total of $2,300.

But Mrs. Wilson, accused of embezzlement and nine counts of forgery involving some $10,000, denied she had written the remainder of checks involved.

The case may go today to the panel after the formal charge is presented by Judge John Sawyer, who has been presiding at the trial which began Monday.

Mrs. Wilson of Brighton Township was held on the charges last May after a routine audit disclosed shortages in the bail bond accounts. Forgery charges were filed after a complete audit.

She said yesterday she needed money for her home and to maintain her family.

Midland By-Pass Placed On County Planners' List

BEAVER — Priority ratings for road projects — including Route 68 from the Ohio border through Industry — were approved Thursday night by the Beaver County Planning Commission for presentation to the Pennsylvania Department of Highways.

The recommended priorities for the projects in the six-year program will be submitted to the highway department Wednesday at Greentree.

Under the federal urban aid section, the planners listed for sixth priority a proposed Midland bypass, a relocation of Route 67 parallel to the Penn Central railroad tracks, a four lane stretch of 2.7 miles.

No. 2 priority on the federal aid primary road section is reconstruction and widening to 48 feet Route 67 from Midland through Industry, a distance of six miles.

No. 3 priority under this section is relocation of the approaches at the intersection of Route 68 with TV Tower Rd., near Mickey's Place.

No. 4 priority is reconstruction of the road from the Shippingport Bridge to the Beaver Valley Expressway—6.6 miles.

No. 5 priority is widening of Route 68 to 48 feet from the Ohio line to Midland — 2.5 miles — and No. 8 priority is widening and relocating of Route 30 from the West Virginia line to Route 18—7.7 miles.

In other action, the planners approved a report proposing the county commissioners not participate financially in the county community college as it presently stands. However, the planners left the matter open for further study.

Runaway Rig Rams 2 Poles

Two heavy metal poles were torn from their bases Thursday night at E. 5th and Walnut Sts. when rammed by a tractor - trailer rig as its brakes failed in descending the grade from the Pennsylvania Ave. "Hill Rd." into the downtown area.

Keith Ira Davis, 35, of 1014 Bradshaw Ave., the driver, escaped injury in the collision, which caused heavy damage to the front end of the tractor. The rig ploughed into a streetlight standard owned by the Ohio Power Co. and another heavy metal pole supporting a large neon sign in front of the Firestone Store, officers said.

Davis told officers his brakes failed as he descended the grade while traveling west on E. 5th St. He said he attempted to swerve, presumably onto Walnut St., but struck the poles.

The mishap was timed at 10:30. Davis was operating a rig owned by Steve Zunac of 29 Landell St., Rochester, Pa. Patrolman H. E. Frontz, who investigated, cited him on a charge of driving left of the center line.

Davis was fined $10 and costs today on the charge by Municipal Judge Samuel M. Chertoff.

The fire department was called to the scene about 10:33 to flush gasoline from the street and stand by until crews from the Ohio Power Co. arrived. Power lines were brought down by the crash.

The department was on the scene until 11:43.

A 6-year-old boy was treated at City Hospital for injuries he suffered at 4:38 p. m. yesterday when he ran into the side of a moving auto on Bradshaw Ave. at Ambrose Ave.

James Rinestine, son of William Rinestine of 427 Thompson Ave., was treated for a laceration under the chin, an abrasion of the back and a bump on the forehead. Police said he ran into the side of a 1968 sedan operated by Lawrence W. Brokaw, 27, of 1064 Ephriam St.

Brokaw told officers he was driving east on Bradshaw about 20 miles an hour when the boy ran from in front of a parked car into the side of his auto. The description of the mishap was corroborated by Michael Taggart of 1004 Bradshaw Ave., who was looking out the front door of his home at the time, officers said.

A report was filed Thursday on a mishap on Monre St. near W. 6th Wednesday afternoon that damaged two cars.

The mishap involved a parked 1962 station wagon owned by Jack M. Eisenhart of the Y. & O. Rd. and a 1966 two-door sedan operated by Nina B. Enochs of 341 Indiana Ave., Chester. The woman said she was backing in a parking space when her foot slipped from the brake onto the accelerator, causing her car to hit Eisenhart's auto.

Post Filled By County

LISBON — Olin Evans, Elkton grocer and Elkrun Township trustee, is the newest member of the Columbiana County Regional Planning Commission.

County commissioners appointed him Thursday to serve the two years remaining on the term of Walter Coie, Elkrun Township farmer, who asked to be relieved. Evans will represent Elkrun and Middleton Townships.

Firemen Again Called To Smoldering Ruins

City firemen were called once more to the site of the burned-out Siff shoe store in the Diamond Thursday as the ruins continued to smolder.

The debris from Sunday night's major blaze was wetted down again by Asst. Chief James Pelley and his crew.

In another call yesterday, firemen took the squad truck to 851 9th St., the home of Joseph Albaneso, for a smoke investigation. The smoke resulted from a faulty furnace, they said.

Grover Cleveland, called up during the Civil War for military service, availed himself of the then - legal right to hire a substitute.

9 Windows Smashed In Building At Lisbon

LISBON — Nine windows were broken Thursday night in Gregg Ramsey's machine shop on S. Market St. near the Erie-Lackawanna Railroad tracks.

Patrolman John Vokovich discovered the damage early today.

Police said there have been other instances of window breaking at the shop and believe it is the work of juveniles.

Out Of The Air

By HAL HUMPHREY

Belafonte Probes TV

Harry Belafonte continues to be amazed at the public reaction he received and still is getting from that week recently when he took over Johnny Carson's "Tonight" show on NBC.

Hal Humphrey

"It was an incredible response," says Harry, "and I was particularly happy because we made an honest attempt at a kind of truth, and 99 per cent of the comment on the shows was favorable. Oh, naturally, there were those who wrote or called up and wanted to know who I thought I was to have an opinion on the Vietnamese war, and anyway they wanted to be entertained and not politicked."

-:-

A FEW COMPLAINERS also asked Harry how come he didn't give equal time to answer Sen. Robert Kennedy and Rev. Martin Luther King, both of whom were guests that week.

"I told those people that if they looked at the medium at all they'd know there was no need for equal time. The other side has most of the time on TV anyway," says Harry.

When Harry decided to accept NBC's offer to sub for Carson (which, by the way, was made by RCA president Robert Sarnoff and NBC vice president of talent David Tebet), he did so with certain conditions — that he could invite anyone from any station of life on the show and that he not be required to deliver any commercials.

-:-

NBC AGREED, except it would allow no guest under federal indictment, which meant Harry could not invite Dr. Benjamin Spock, recently indicted for encouraging draft evasion.

There was some grumbling on the lower NBC levels when Harry had the Smothers Brothers as guests because they are on CBS and responsible for knocking NBC's formerly No. 1 show, "Bonanza," out of the box.

Harry's success on the "Tonight" show gave him no yen to have such a TV show of his own, however.

"I wouldn't do it with all of those commercial interruptions, but when the network makes about $25 million a year from those, you can see I'm not to be asked to do one regularly," Harry adds.

-:-

WHAT HE WOULD like to do is a 90-minute interview-type program once a month. Harry was very much impressed with Eric Sevareid's talk a few about months ago on CBS with the ex-longshoreman and San Francisco bard, Eric Hoffer, and saw it as the perfect interview format.

"I like TV. As a mass medium it's a reality, and there are things I feel should be better known to more people, and TV is the way to reach them. But I don't mean TV on Sunday morning — I mean when you can articulate things not seen on Sunday morning," Harry says.

"About every five years I take a probe of TV to see if sanity and acceptability are being practiced yet, if there may be somebody who would listen to suggestions, but so far I haven't found it in American TV

-:-

"I'VE GOT some ideas for TV shows, but I'm negotiating with the Canadian Broadcasting Corp. There's more freedom with the CBC, so I'll do my shows in Canada. And if the commercial networks don't want them here, I'll give them to our National Educational TV network.

"I'm 41 this month, which means I've got a maximum of 100 years left, and I'd like to use them with more sense of purpose and care than I did the last 100," says Harry, smiling.

One of the things Harry has in mind for TV is a social documentary on the blues. He wouldn't use big-name stars, but emphasize the conditions which made people sing the blues and how they got started. He also has in mind a history of the Mississippi River, which he would do under the title "Big Boat Up the River."

-:-

"I DON'T MEAN with Greg Peck as a natty gambler and naked cancan girls, but an unfolding of history as it was tied to the Mississippi," Harry adds.

He's been in Hollywood the past week taping a guest appearance on NBC's Petula Clark special scheduled for airing April 2. Harry will be the only guest on the show with Petula.

"I like her, although we'd never met before, and her producer, Steve Binder, is good. He'll let you try things that haven't been done before. Petula is a dream of a lady. We'll sing one duet, 'Paths to Glory,' an antiwar song."

Tonight's Performer Has Relatives Here

Edward Villella of the New York City Ballet, who will appear on the Bell Telephone Hour special tonight of "Man Who Dances," is a cousin of Patrick and Anne Villella, Mrs. Margaret Caputo and Mrs. Helen Cunningham, all of East Liverpool, and Mrs. Jo Weinberger of Youngstown.

May Election Set

WEIRTON — The triennial election to name 18 employe directors of the Employee Relief and Beneficial Association to assist in the administration of the group insurance program at the Weirton Steel Division of the National Steel Corp. will be held in company plants May 15 and 16.

Midland's Water Project Will Enter Final Phase

The final phase of Midland's water expansion project will begin next week with June being eyed as the date to put the new system into operation.

Work was launched Aug. 9, 1967, on the $342,000 project and has progressed along three phases.

The Midland Municipal Authority said today the D. L. Kollar Contractors of McKeesport have been notified to proceed with "Project 29," which is the complete renovation of the booster station at 3rd St. and Penn Ave.

Donald Craik, authority manager, said the company will replace pumps, motors, pipes and controls.

—:—

THE NEW PUMPS will be capable of moving 500 gallons of water a minute, twice the amount of the current pumps.

Work is to begin on or before next Tuesday on this phase of the program. Contractors have already built a new retaining wall at the area to protect the booster station from slides from a nearby hillside.

The booster station will pump water to reservoirs or the Midland Heights and Ohioville Borough areas.

There are two reservoirs at the Heights — one old and one new. Both are situated on a half acre of land and each has a 150,000 gallon capacity.

The first reservoir was designed to supply 300 families at Midland Heights.

—:—

UNDER THE expansion program, the new reservoir was constructed to handle the additional load at the Heights and in Ohioville. Ohioville Borough purchases water from Midland.

There are now two reservoirs on 8th St. property, Midland. The first was built in 1952 and holds 500,000 gallons. The new reservoir built at the area under another phase of the expansion program holds 1½ million gallons. A reservoir at 10th St. holds 2 million gallons. These supply Midland and Crucible Steel, Midland Division.

California contains more national forests than any other state.

Replaces Sir Patrick Dean

Freeman To Be Britain's New Ambassador To U.S.

LONDON (AP) — A former journalist who is high commissioner to India will take over as Britain's ambassador to the United States early next year.

John Freeman replaces Sir Patrick Dean, who retires after three years in Washington.

The move is part of a current shift of high level British diplomats announced by the Foreign Office today. Christopher Soames, son-in-law of the late Sir Winston Churchill, goes to Paris succeeding Sir Patrick Reilly. Sir Roger Jackling, deputy undersecretary at the Foreign Office, replaces Sir Frank Roberts as ambassador to West Germany.

Tall, 53-year-old Freeman is chiefly known to the British public as a suave but persistent interviewer of personalities on television, a medium he will undoubtedly use in presenting Britain's views in America.

Always polished, his questions could become barbed when he suspected an attempt to pull the wool over his eyes.

Freeman's handling of Britain's ticklish relations with India during his three years in New Delhi has won him the respect of colleages at the Foreign Office.

His stay in New Delhi spanned the India-Pakistan conflicts over Kashmir and the Rann of Kutch which jarred the British Commonwealth and strained Britain's relations with both countries.

The son of a London lawyer, Freeman was educated at Westminster School and Oxford.

His first venture was in advertising as a consultant from 1937 until World War II. He saw active duty throughout that conflict.

He was elected to Parliament in the Labor party landslide of 1945 for the Watford district of Hertfordshire and re-elected in 1950. He held a number of junior ministerial posts during that time but resigned as parliamentary secretary to the minister of supply in 1951 to protest the government's big rearmament program over the Korean War.

Freeman moved to the New Statesman, a leftist weekly, as assistant editor. Seven years later he became deputy editor and in 1960 editor, a post he held until his departure for New Delhi.

Belafonte Probes TV

Harry Belafonte continues to be amazed at the public reaction he received and still is getting from that week recently when he took over Johnny Carson's "Tonight" show on NBC.

Hal Humphrey

"It was an incredible response," says Harry, "and I was particularly happy because we made an honest attempt at a kind of truth, and 99 per cent of the comment on the shows was favorable. Oh, naturally, there were those who wrote or called up and wanted to know who I thought I was to have an opinion on the Vietnamese war, and anyway they wanted to be entertained and not politicked."

-:-

A FEW COMPLAINERS also asked Harry how come he didn't give equal time to answer Sen. Robert Kennedy and Rev. Martin Luther King, both of whom were guests that week.

"I told those people that if they looked at the medium at all they'd know there was no need for equal time. The other side has most of the time on TV anyway," says Harry.

Midland's Water Project Will Enter Final Phase

The final phase of Midland's water expansion project will begin next week with June being eyed as the date to put the new system into operation.

Work was launched Aug. 9, 1967, on the $342,000 project and has progressed along three phases.

The Midland Municipal Authority said today the D. L. Kollar Contractors of McKeesport have been notified to proceed with "Project 29," which is the complete renovation of the booster station at 3rd St. and Penn Ave.

Donald Craik, authority manager, said the company will replace pumps, motors, pipes and controls.

—:—

THE NEW PUMPS will be capable of moving 500 gallons of water a minute, twice the amount of the current pumps.

Work is to begin on or before next Tuesday on this phase of the program. Contractors have already built a new retaining wall at the area to protect the booster station from slides from a nearby hillside.

The booster station will pump water to reservoirs or the Midland Heights and Ohioville Borough areas.

There are two reservoirs at the Heights — one old and one new. Both are situated on a half acre of land and each has a 150,000 gallon capacity.

The first reservoir was designed to supply 300 families at Midland Heights.

UNDER THE expansion program, the new reservoir was constructed to handle the additional load at the Heights and in Ohioville. Ohioville Borough purchases water from Midland.

There are now two reservoirs on 8th St. property, Midland. The first was built in 1952 and holds 500,000 gallons. The new reservoir built at the area under another phase of the expansion program holds 1½ million gallons. A reservoir at 10th St. holds 2 million gallons. These supply Midland and Crucible Steel, Midland Division.

California contains more national forests than any other state.

Kiwanis Told Of Aid Given By Area CSF

The scope of student aid provided by the Area Citizens Scholarship Foundation in the last five years was described by Jackman Vodrey of the foundation during the Kiwanis Club meeting Thursday.

Vodrey spoke of the amount of support provided by groups, businesses and individuals for the annual campaign for funds for students in the seven area school districts.

He said more than $95,000 has been contributed for 283 scholarships in the last five years, with some of the students receiving aid for two or more years.

—:—

HE POINTED out an alumni committee has now been formed by the foundation to encourage recipients of funds who have been graduated from college to begin repaying money.

Applicants for aid are requested to return the money when they have launched their careers and are in a position to do so.

So far, $1,175 has been repaid from the first year group which received a total of $6,000. Fall River, Mass., where the program was first started, some 95 per cent of the funds granted are returned, Vodrey, a national director of CSF, said.

Funds are granted on the basis of need, student ability and other factors which enable young people not in line for academic scholarships to go to college. In some cases when additional scholarship funds are received by a boy or girl, they return part or all of the CSF money, Vodrey explained.

—:—

VODREY ALSO said that of the $36,100 obtained last year, less than $100 was used for expenses — $50 of this for the national's special application and rating forms.

The annual "Dollars For Scholars" campaign will start March 31 in the seven districts —East Liverpool, Beaver Local, Oak Glen, Wellsville, Midland, South Side and Western Beaver.

Vodrey was introduced by James McGowan.

Appeal For Refugee Aid

District Man Attempting To Help Victims Of Viet War

A Smiths Ferry man who is manager of the USO at Freedom Hill, Danang, Vietnam, has launched his own crusade to secure relief items for refugees of the war.

He is Henry Neal Camp, 38, a former East Liverpool resident and son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Camp Jr. of Smiths Ferry, who went to Vietnam last May armed with a degree in sociology and a desire to help people.

Camp has issued appeals for clothing, antiseptics, medicines and other items in letters sent to both The Review and the Midland News newspapers, as well as in those to his parents.

In letters to the papers, he said "The people of the Tri-State area responded magnificently to the USO's call for gifts for servicemen in Vietnam at Christmastime. Now I want to ask you for a different kind of response. No matter how you feel personally about the war in Vietnam, the fact remains that there is a war. From the recent heavy fighting thousands of innocdnt people are suffering, are homeless.

"BEING SO CLOSE to the situation I do not feel that I can sit back and do nothing. I know many of these people personally. Some are my employes here at this USO.

"Specifically needed are light clothing, light jackets and sweaters, children's clothing, baby clothes, talcum powder, baby oil, antiseptics, aspirin, light blankets and other items of this nature.

"If some of you in the Tri-State area as individuals or groups would like to help these unfortunate people, I will be happy to see it reaches the proper hands."

In a letter received Friday by his parents, Camp said:

—:—

"I WONDER IF you could get together with some of the other folks in Smiths Ferry and perhaps some of our friends and relatives, and make some kind of contribution to the refugees in Danang. Perhaps you could make this a church project.

"Most of the people in Danang came out okay, for the fighting was limited and over very quickly. All my own employes and their families are in good shape except two who are originally from Hue. Their families have been hard hit.

"The horror of war is the innocent ordinary people who are caught in between the combatants. They are the ones who suffer most.

"Used clothing is a good item, no matter how old, as long as it's clean and in one piece. Money is always welcome. I can make sure it's used to purchase food or furniture, or something that's needed badly.

because this is one of the most secure areas in Vietnam. It's impossible to help them all, but perhaps I can give some personal help to a few.

And this he has done. He and a buddy have purchased as many shoes and pieces of clothing that their funds will allow.

Now Camp has placed his request before his friends in the East Liverpool Review and Midland News circulation areas, hoping that they will respond with some of the badly needed items listed above.

Relief items may be sent to:

—:—

CAMP IS A 1947 graduate of East Liverpool High School and a 1961 graduate of Syracuse University. He served in the Navy at Norfolk from 1948 until 1950.

Following college he worked at Syracuse. Then he decided to apply to go to Vietnam for two years as a civilian. He arrived in Saigon May 1, 1967. On Aug. 1 he was transferred from the Saigon USO Club to the one at Danang.

In other letters to his parents, Camp said he finds the Vietnamese charming and the country fascinating. "You never really know what the East is like until you've been here," he remarked. "You see the ancient and primitive side by side with the modern; this is part of the fascination of the Orient."

HE VISITED the town of Peton, a famous hot springs resort area. "Clouds of steam rise from these streams in the valley. The water bubbles up out of mounds of surphur and forms a large pond. All the hotels in the area pipe their water (hot) directly from these streams, but the hotels have no heating systems, so it was cold and damp in our rooms."

He has had three leaves for rest and recuperation to Bangkok, Hong Kong and Taipei. He said, "Bangkok is a very large, beautiful city. Hong Kong is one immense business district; very scenic. Taipei is dull and colorless in comparison with Hong Kong."

He was on a leave to Bangkok when the Danang base was bombed. Returning, he had a narrow escape at Saigon airport. While he was waiting for a plane for Danang, the Viet Cong attacked the airport. Rockets burst within 25 to 50 yards all around him, but he was not hurt.

With all the All America basketball teams now being picked, we feel it's time to make our contribution by naming the Top 50 major college players.

The long and the short of the selections are on the first team, with 7-1½ Lew Alcindor of UCLA and 5-10 Calvin Murphy of Niagara. Along with Murphy, there are eight other sophomores in the top 50.

Our other three first team selections are Wesley Unseld of Louisville, Larry Miller of North Carolina and Elvin Hayes of Houston.

Second team choices are sophomores Pete Maravich of LSU and Bob Lanier of St. Bonaventure, along with Don May of Dayton, Ron Williams of West Virginia and Jo-Jo White of Kansas.

Third team choices are Mike Lewis of Duke, Neal Walk of Florida, Butch Beard of Louisville, Lucious Allen of UCLA and Joe Allen of Bradley.

The seventh team consists of Rich Travis of Oklahoma City, Rick Mount of Purdue, Shaler Halimon of Utah State, Clarence Brookins of Temple and Mike Warren of UCLA.

On the eighth team is Harry Hollines of Denver, Bill Schutsky of Army, Tom Boerwinkle of Tennessee, Bob Arnzen of Notre Dame and Art Stephenson of Rhode Island.

The ninth squad selections are Bob Whitmore of Notre Dame, Fred Foster of Miami (O.), George Stone of Marshall, Steve Mix of Toledo and Mickey McCarty of TCU.

Rounding out the Top 50 are Don Chaney of Houston, Manny Leaks of Niagara, Walt Piatkowski of Bowling Green, Dan Issel of Kentucky and Charlie Scott of North Carolina.

Every year it gets harder to select a Top 50 as the caliber of players improves. Left out were such standouts as Billy Evans and Terry Driscoll of Boston College, Ed Siudit of Holy Cross Vaughn Harper of Syracuse, Chris Thomforde and Joe Heiser of Princeton, Bernie Williams of LaSalle, Art Beatty of American U., John Tolmie of Navy, Norm Vanlier of St. Francis, Stu Lantz of Nebraska, Gary Gregor of South Carolina, Bill Butler of St. Bonaventure, Skip Hayes of Providence and many more.

LEETONIA'S George Zepernick scored seven points as Westminster nudged Edinboro State, 48-41, at Geneva Wednesday night to clinch a berth in the NAIA tournament at Kansas City. Defense won the game for Buzz Ridl's charges, as they held Edinboro to 16 points in the first half and then closed off the Highlanders completely for the last 5:03 after the score was tied at 41. Edinboro brought about 20 busloads of students to the game, and Beaver Falls police must have set a record for ejections in keeping the unruly Highlander fans under control.

IF YOU THINK you've heard every sport there is on the radio, you should have tuned in on the National Canadian Curling Championships Wednesday night. Don't feel out of it if you aren't familiar with curling (shuffleboard on ice is a good brief description). The terms used on the broadcast were almost meaningless to the uninitiated, but excitement was generated as Ontaria edged Quebec in the final "end." A foreigner listening to a broadcast of an American baseball game would be just as mystified.

Kent State Hosting NCAA Doubleheader

By HAL PARIS
Associated Press Sports Writer

KENT, Ohio (AP—East Tennessee State battles Florida State and Bowling Green takes on Marquette here Saturday night in an NCAA Mideast Regional doubleheader.

The two winners advance to second round tournament play March 15-16 at Lexington.

Kent's Memorial Gymnasium, seating 7,200 already is sold out for the twin-bill which opens at 7 p. m. when East Tennessee (18-6) trades baskets with Florida State (19-7).

Bowling Green (18-6) clashes with Marquette (21-5) in the 9 p. m. nightcap.

The opener is expected to be a high-scoring affair since both clubs use a run-and-shoot style.

East Tennessee, the Ohio Valley champion, is led by 6-foot-3 Harley Swift and 6-6 Ernie Sims. Swift leads the Buccaneers in scoring with an 18.0 point average while Sims snared 11 rebounds a game.

The Seminoles, like Marquette an at-large team in this doubleheader, are a rangy club sparked by soph standout Dave Cowens. He leads the Florida quintet in scoring with a 19.1 average and in rebounding with 17.4 a game.

Bowling Green, the Mid-American Conference titlist, counts on a five-man iron club and the shooting of Walt Piatkowski to get the job done. The Falcons and the Warriors are well matched. Both shoot well and are tough on the boards.

Defensively, BG is allowing 68.8 a contest compared to Marquette's 63.2.

The Falcons have a decided height advantage with Piatkowski measuring 6-8, Al Dixon 6-9 and Joe Henderson, 6-5.

Coach Al McGuire's frontline consists of Brian Brunkhorst, 6-6, Pat Smith, 6-3 and star junior George Thompson, 6-2.

The nightcap could shape up into a duel between Pitakowski, who has a three - year career average of 21.5 and Thompson, who shows a 23.0 average this season and already ranks as Marquette's ninth highest all-time scorer.

Thompson not only scores well but jumps like a 6-6 player and likes to mix it under the boards.

The East Tennessee-Florida State victor will meet the Big Ten champion, likely to be Iowa, Friday, March 15 while the Marquette-BG winner has the task of battling SEC champion Kentucky on the Wildcats home floor the same night.

Riders Connect On 29 Foul Shots

By TURK PIERCE
Review Sports Editor

Defense and rebounding — the two long suits of the East Liverpool Potters all year — were trumped by Martins Ferry last night as the Purple Riders eliminated East Liverpool from the district basketball tournament with a 75-59 win at Steubenville.

The winners controlled the boards 33-29, only the second time all year that the Potters have been out-rebounded, and went through, around and over East Liverpool's usually tough man-to-man defense to hit a sizzling 61 per cent of their field goal attempts.

East Liverpool was in the game until the last period, trailing only 43-37 going into the final stanza, but Ferry quickly jumped to a 10-point lead and the desperate Potters had to start fouling to get the ball and the Purple Riders proved deadly from the foul line.

Not only were the 75 points the most given up by East Liverpool this season (the previous high was 63 to Steubenville Central), but the 32 markers tallied by the Riders in the last period were more than East Liverpool allowed Barberton for a whole game.

Dave Reasbeck and Floyd Malatesta were the main architects of the Potter defeat. Reasbeck hit for 29 points, the most any individual, including Allen Hornyak of Bellaire St. John's, had scored against East Liverpool this season, and Malatesta added 23. Malatesta also led Martins Ferry in rebounding with 9, despite playing a guard spot.

EARL DIDDLE was high for East Liverpool with 15 points, while Mike McVay added 12 and Jerry Christian 11. Christian had 10 rebounds.

Losing coach Clint McConnell cited the lack of offensive rebounding as the key to the Potter demise. He also noted that East Liverpool did not work the ball for the good shot. He denied that there was a psychological factor in the defeat, a possible letdown because of the tremendous struggle to defeat Steubenville Central Saturday night and because East Liverpool had beaten Martins Ferry 75-56 earlier in the season, but said "We were flat".

At the beginning of the game East Liverpool was scoreless for 3:26, but the Riders led only 4-0. The Potters drew even at 7 and 9, but didn't get the lead until the 5:58 mark of the second period, when a long jumper by Bruce Christian made it 15-14. A long shot by Diddle and a follow-up shot by Jerry Christian made it 19-14, but this proved to be the biggest Potter margin of the night.

Martins Ferry surged back to lead 27-22. A three-point play on a follow - up shot by Paul Pettit, who added 14 points to the Rider attack, put the down river team ahead for good 25-22 with 53 seconds left in the half. Ferry got a boost when Malatesta's long shot just beat the halftime buzzer to make the score 29-24.

A follow - up shot by Bruce Christian and a short shot by Mitchell Jones after a nice assist by McVay got the Potters off to a good start in the second half, and they trailed only 29-28 But here the winners, led by Malatesta, put on the best streak of the game, nine points, and it was 38-28 with 4:10 to go in the period.

EAST LIVERPOOL battled back again, and a long shot by Bruce Christian narrowed the gap to 41-37 with nine seconds left. But Malatesta was fouled with one second showing on the clock and converted two shots to give Ferry breathing room.

Reasbeck made three fouls to start the last period before Rick Steffen hit a long shot with 6:40 to go. Pettit then made a basket and a foul and it was 49-39 with 5:35 left. After McVay hit a long shot East Liverpool went into a press, which proved woefully ineffective, as the Riders scored three straight fast break baskets after the Potters had hit on long shots. Then East Liverpool started to foul, and the rest of the game became an endless procession to the foul line by the Purple - clad winners. East Liverpool never got closer than 8 and the biggest margin was 18 at 73-55 and 75-57.

In the last period the Riders hit 7 of 8 shots from the floor and 18 of 21 from the foul line, with Reasbeck going 9 for 10 and Malatesta 7 of 8 from the charity stripe. The Potters had no foul attempts in the last period.

East Liverpool had a 27-23 margin in field goals, and hit a creditable 45 per cent from the floor. Prior to the last period, however, the teams were even in field goals, with East Liverpool 16 for 40 for 40 per cent and Martins Ferry 16 for 30 for 53 per cent. The Potters were called for 13 fouls to 11 by the winners over the first three periods, but East Liverpool could convert only 42 per cent of its foul shots. Ferry hit 66 per cent prior to the final stanza and 74 per cent overall.

The Potter offense did not work as smoothly as usual. They committed 11 turnovers to 7 for the Riders, on several occasions trying to force the ball inside. But the problem more often was taking long shots from the outside and not getting the offensive rebound, Diddle missed seven shots in a row in the second half before connecting in the last period. Ferry's shooting was such that the Potters did not have the opportunity to get many defensive rebounds.

ROGER BEST'S team is now 15-6 and will meet Zanesville in the district finals at 8 p.m. Saturday. The Potters end the season 19-2, percentagewise the best in the history of the school. The previous best was 18-2 in 1932. By losing, East Liverpool missed a chance to even the series record with Martins Ferry. The Riders now show a 32-30 edge. East Liverpool had won three straight over the Riders, yielding 56 points in each game.

In last night's opener Zanesville breezed past New Philadelphia 68-49, as 6-4 Bob Welcher had 24 points and Bob Blancett added 13. Terry Rieger had 18 and Terry Heverly 13 for the losers. The game was close throughout the first period but the Blue Devils pulled steadily away after that, exhibiting a tough 2-3 zone defense, fine rebounding and good passing on offense. Zanesville is 19-2 on the year, both losses coming to Newark.

Pipers Defeat Oakland, Hawkins Scores 39

By The Associated Press

It's going to be difficult to dislodge Connie Hawkins from the No. 1 spot in the individual scoring race in the American Basketball Association.

He strengthened his hold on the top rung by tossing in 39 points Thursday night to lead the Pittsburgh Pipers to a 119-114 road victory over the Oakland Oaks.

It was the 12th straight victory over the Oaks, but the Oaks were in contention until the last two minutes before losing their seventh in a row. The Oaks pulled within 112-111 before two free throws each by Hawkins and Chico Vaughn put the Pipers out of danger.

The Minnesota Muskies also scored on the road over Anaheim 124-115 and the Houston Mavericks won at home over the Indiana Pacers 115-104 in the other ABA games scheduled.

Don Freeman's basket put the Muskies ahead for good at 110-109 against Anaheim. Mel Daniels led the winners with 24 points while John Fairchild got 32 for the losing Amigos.

Willie Somerset tallied 31 points for Houston as the Mavericks beat Indiana with a last-quarter surge. Roger Brown was high for the Pacers with 30.

Ohio University Ice Hockey Coach John McComb recorded his 100th career win with a 9-2 victory over Ohio State, his team's fourth over the Buckeyes this winter, and 19th of 22 in the series.

Dukes Draw Rams In NIT

NEW YORK (AP) — Fourteen of the 16 teams in the National Invitation Basketball Tournament have received word on their first round opponents. Only the Oklahoma City Chiefs remain in the dark today, knowing only that they will have perhaps the toughest time reaching the second round.

The pairings, released Thursday for the 31st annual tourney at Madison Square Garden, pits Oklahoma City against the runner-up of the Atlantic Coast Conference tournament, which ends Saturday.

Fifth-ranked North Carolina and sixth-ranked Duke are expected to battle for the title and the automatic bid to the NCAA tourney. The second place team goes to the NIT, which does not give the Chiefs much to choose from. Either North Carolina or Duke will be an NIT favorite with the ACC team already seeded first.

The Chiefs, 20-6, face the ACC runner-up in the second half of the opening night doubleheader next Thursday after Marshall, 17-7, and St. Peter's, 22-2, tangle in the first game.

Actually, the tournament, expanded from 14 to 16 teams last week, had no seedings, but it was learned that the draw was built around the ACC team, Dayton, Bradley and Kansas.

Kansas, 18-7, of the Big Eight swings into action Friday night against Temple, 19-8, before Villanova, 18-8, and Wyoming, 18-8, the Western Athletic Conference runner-up, square off.

Bradley, 19-8, which finished second in the Missouri Valley Conference, drew Long Island U., 21-1, the nation's top-ranked small college team, in the second half of a doubleheader Saturday afternoon. Army, 20-4, and Notre Dame, 18-8, meet in the opener.

A Saturday night doubleheader completes the first round with Fordham, 17-7, paired against Duquesne, 18-6, and West Virginia, 19-8, meeting Dayton, 17-9. West Virginia finished second in the Southern Conference.

The quarter-finals will be Monday and Tuesday nights, March 18-19, the semifinals Thursday night March 21 and the title contest at 2 p.m., EST, Saturday, March 23. A game for third place starts at noon that day. The championship game will be televised by CBS.

Dickinson Leads Doral, Knudson Skies To 76

MIAMI (AP) — For two happy weeks, George Knudson rode smoothly along golf's glory road. Then came the detour.

The lanky, red-haired Canadian had won two straight tournaments. He had a chance in the $100,000 Doral Open to make it three in a row—a feat last accomplished in 1960 when Arnold Palmer racked up the Texas, Baton Rouge and Pensacola opens in succession.

But in Thursday's opening round, Knudson veered onto a sideroad rough with bogeys.

"It was a terrible effort," he said after posting a 76 and winding up 11 distant strokes behind the leader, Gardner Dickinson.

Knudson had come here bubbling with confidence after his victories at Phoenix and Tucson made him the year's top money winner. In less than three months, he had earned $50,310, more than he had ever banked before in an entire year.

He didn't realize it then, but the pressure was beginning to get to him.

Shortly after starting his round Thursday he said he realized that "I was getting pretty tied up—all on edge." Suddenly, the ball wasn't going where he aimed it.

"It was awful from the first shot to the last," he said. "I was never with it all day long."

There were no birdies along the road, only bogeys. He collected five of them. Two came on the eighth and 10th holes when shots pulled out of line by the tension dropped into Doral's notorious water hazards and he took one-stroke penalties.

But when the shock wore off, Knudson decided that, "It's a relief actually."

"I knew I couldn't keep it up," he said. "I've broken a string and now I'll just have to try to start a new one."

Dickinson, with no problem of pressure, fired a record-tying, seven-under-par 65 and went into Friday's second round with a two-stroke margin over Lionel Hebert and Howie Johnson.

With all the All America basketball teams now being picked, we feel it's time to make our contribution by naming the Top 50 major college players.

The long and the short of the selections are on the first team, with 7-1½ Lew Alcindor of UCLA and 5-10 Calvin Murphy of Niagara. Along with Murphy, there are eight other sophomores in the top 50.

Our other three first team selections are Wesley Unseld of Louisville, Larry Miller of North Carolina and Elvin Hayes of Houston.

Second team choices are sophomores Pete Maravich of LSU and Bob Lanier of St. Bonaventure, along with Don May of Dayton, Ron Williams of West Virginia and Jo-Jo White of Kansas.

Third team choices are Mike Lewis of Duke, Neal Walk of Florida, Butch Beard of Louisville, Lucious Allen of UCLA and Joe Allen of Bradley.

The seventh team consists of Rich Travis of Oklahoma City, Rick Mount of Purdue, Shaler Halimon of Utah State, Clarence Brookins of Temple and Mike Warren of UCLA.

On the eighth team is Harry Hollines of Denver, Bill Schutsky of Army, Tom Boerwinkle of Tennessee, Bob Arnzen of Notre Dame and Art Stephenson of Rhode Island.

The ninth squad selections are Bob Whitmore of Notre Dame, Fred Foster of Miami (O.), George Stone of Marshall, Steve Mix of Toledo and Mickey McCarty of TCU.

Rounding out the Top 50 are Don Chaney of Houston, Manny Leaks of Niagara, Walt Piatkowski of Bowling Green, Dan Issel of Kentucky and Charlie Scott of North Carolina.

Every year it gets harder to select a Top 50 as the caliber of players improves. Left out were such standouts as Billy Evans and Terry Driscoll of Boston College, Ed Siudit of Holy Cross, Vaughn Harper of Syracuse, Chris Thomforde and Joe Heiser of Princeton, Bernie Williams of LaSalle, Art Beatty of American U., John Tolmie of Navy, Norm Vanlier of St. Francis, Stu Lantz of Nebraska, Gary Gregor of South Carolina, Bill Butler of St. Bonaventure, Skip Hayes of Providence and many more.

LEETONIA'S George Zepernick scored seven points as Westminster nudged Edinboro State, 48-41, at Geneva Wednesday night to clinch a berth in the NAIA tournament at Kansas City. Defense won the game for Buzz Ridl's charges, as they held Edinboro to 16 points in the first half and then closed off the Highlanders completely for the last 5:03 after the score was tied at 41. Edinboro brought about 20 busloads of students to the game, and Beaver Falls police must have set a record for ejections in keeping the unruly Highlander fans under control.

IF YOU THINK you've heard every sport there is on the radio, you should have tuned in on the National Canadian Curling Championships Wednesday night. Don't feel out of it if you aren't familiar with curling (shuffleboard on ice is a good brief description). The terms used on the broadcast were almost meaningless to the uninitiated, but excitement was generated as Ontaria edged Quebec in the final "end." A foreigner listening to a broadcast of an American baseball game would be just as mystified.

Kent State Hosting NCAA Doubleheader

By HAL PARIS
Associated Press Sports Writer

KENT, Ohio (AP—East Tennessee State battles Florida State and Bowling Green takes on Marquette here Saturday night in an NCAA Mideast Regional doubleheader.

The two winners advance to second round tournament play March 15-16 at Lexington.

Kent's Memorial Gymnasium, seating 7,200 already is sold out for the twin-bill which opens at 7 p. m. when East Tennessee (18-6) trades baskets with Florida State (19-7).

Bowling Green (18-6) clashes with Marquette (21-5) in the 9 p. m. nightcap.

The opener is expected to be a high-scoring affair since both clubs use a run-and-shoot style.

East Tennessee, the Ohio Valley champion, is led by 6-foot-3 Harley Swift and 6-6 Ernie Sims. Swift leads the Buccaneers in scoring with an 18.0 point average while Sims snared 11 rebounds a game.

The Seminoles, like Marquette an at-large team in this doubleheader, are a rangy club sparked by soph standout Dave Cowens. He leads the Florida quintet in scoring with a 19.1 average and in rebounding with 17.4 a game.

Bowling Green, the Mid-American Conference titlist, counts on a five-man iron club and the shooting of Walt Piatkowski to get the job done. The Falcons and the Warriors are well matched. Both shoot well and are tough on the boards.

Defensively, BG is allowing 68.8 a contest compared to Marquette's 63.2.

The Falcons have a decided height advantage with Piatkowski measuring 6-8, Al Dixon 6-9 and Joe Henderson, 6-5.

Coach Al McGuire's frontline consists of Brian Brunkhorst, 6-6, Pat Smith, 6-3 and star junior George Thompson, 6-2.

The nightcap could shape up into a duel between Pitakowski, who has a three - year career average of 21.5 and Thompson, who shows a 23.0 average this season and already ranks as Marquette's ninth highest all-time scorer.

Thompson not only scores well but jumps like a 6-6 player and likes to mix it under the boards.

The East Tennessee-Florida State victor will meet the Big Ten champion, likely to be Iowa, Friday, March 15 while the Marquette-BG winner has the task of battling SEC champion Kentucky on the Wildcats home floor the same night.

Riders Connect On 29 Foul Shots

Defense and rebounding — the two long suits of the East Liverpool Potters all year — were trumped by Martins Ferry last night as the Purple Riders eliminated East Liverpool from the district basketball tournament with a 75-59 win at Steubenville.

The winners controlled the boards 33-29, only the second time all year that the Potters have been out-rebounded, and went through, around and over East Liverpool's usually tough man-to-man defense to hit a sizzling 61 per cent of their field goal attempts.

Bradley, 19-8, which finished second in the Missouri Valley Conference, drew Long Island U., 21-1, the nation's top-ranked small college team, in the second half of a doubleheader Saturday afternoon. Army, 20-4, and Notre Dame, 18-8, meet in the opener.

A Saturday night doubleheader completes the first round with Fordham, 17-7, paired against Duquesne, 18-6, and West Virginia, 19-8, meeting Dayton, 17-9. West Virginia finished second in the Southern Conference.

The quarter-finals will be Monday and Tuesday nights, March 18-19, the semifinals Thursday night March 21 and the title contest at 2 p.m., EST, Saturday, March 23. A game for third place starts at noon that day. The championship game will be televised by CBS.

Dickinson Leads Doral, Knudson Skies To 76

MIAMI (AP) — For two happy weeks, George Knudson rode smoothly along golf's glory road. Then came the detour.

The lanky, red-haired Canadian had won two straight tournaments. He had a chance in the $100,000 Doral Open to make it three in a row—a feat last accomplished in 1960 when Arnold Palmer racked up the Texas, Baton Rouge and Pensacola opens in succession.

But in Thursday's opening round, Knudson veered onto a sideroad rough with bogeys.

"It was a terrible effort," he said after posting a 76 and winding up 11 distant strokes behind the leader, Gardner Dickinson.

Knudson had come here bubbling with confidence after his victories at Phoenix and Tucson made him the year's top money winner. In less than three months, he had earned $50,310, more than he had ever banked before in an entire year.

He didn't realize it then, but the pressure was beginning to get to him.

Shortly after starting his round Thursday he said he realized that "I was getting pretty tied up—all on edge." Suddenly, the ball wasn't going where he aimed it.

"It was awful from the first shot to the last," he said. "I was never with it all day long."

There were no birdies along the road, only bogeys. He collected five of them. Two came on the eighth and 10th holes when shots pulled out of line by the tension dropped into Doral's notorious water hazards and he took one-stroke penalties.

But when the shock wore off, Knudson decided that, "it's a relief actually."

"I knew I couldn't keep it up," he said. "I've broken a string and now I'll just have to try to start a new one."

Dickinson, with no problem of pressure, fired a record-tying, seven-under-par 65 and went into Friday's second round with a two-stroke margin over Lionel Hebert and Howie Johnson.

Wilt Leads 76er Win; Rockets Beaten Again

By The Associated Press

Henry Finkel topped his entire 1966-67 season output, but he couldn't keep the San Diego Rockets from tying another National Basketball Association record for futility.

Finkel scored 41 points Thursday night, one more than he scored in 27 games as a rookie with the Los Angeles Lakers last season, as the Rockets lost to the Lakers 119-102.

For the Rockets, who have won just 15 times in 76 games, the loss was their 29th at home, tying an NBA record set by the 1964-65 San Francisco Warriors. Earlier this season, the Rockets lost 17 straight, which tied a league mark held by those same Warriors.

In other NBA games Thursday, Philadelphia topped Cincinnati 125-117, Chicago upset Boston 118-112 and St. Louis outlasted Seattle 150-133.

Finkel scored 29 of his team's 46 first-half points en route to a single-game record for the first-year-old club. The previous best San Diego scoring performance was 37 points by Don Kojis.

Los Angeles, which led by 10 at the half, was paced by Elgin Baylor, with 35 points, and Archie Clark with 28.

Philadelphia trailed 96-93 after three quarters, but spurted to victory as Wilt Chamberlain and Billy Cunningham each scored nine points and Hal Greer eight in the final period.

Chamberlain finished with 38 points and 28 rebounds. Greer scored 15 to push his NBA career total to 15,002. Oscar Robertson's 35 points led Cincinnati.

Chicago built up an 18-point lead late in the third period and then fought off a Boston rally for the Bulls' third victory over the Celtics in their two NBA seasons. Bob Boozer topped Chicago with 26 points. John Havlicek poured in 32 for Boston.

St. Louis went on an 11-point spree in the second quarter for a 56-52 halftime lead and Seattle could never get closer in the game at Portland, Ore. Len Wilkens scored 33 points for St. Louis, which clinched a tie for first place in the Western Division. Walt Hazzard and Rod Thorn each got 29 for Seattle.

Loyola Ramblers Ready For Top-Ranked Houston

By TED MEIER
Associated Press Sports Writer

If psychology can do it, the underdog Chicago Loyola Ramblers will score the biggest upset of the college basketball season by beating the top-ranked Houston Cougars in the first round of the NCAA championship tournament Saturday night.

The Ramblers, 16-8 for the season, go against the unbeaten 28-0 Cougars, led by the Big E, All-American Elvin Hayes, at Salt Lake City.

"Our players are all hopped up and we've sold them on the idea of beating Houston," said George Ireland, the Loyola coach who is no stranger to NCAA tournament competition. His Ramblers took the title in 1963 by beating Cincinnati. They were the underdogs then, too.

Ireland said if his players hit on their outside shots "then our full court press and the fast break at every opportunity may give Houston trouble."

"We kept telling our players all week to look at the papers so they could read they have no chance against Houston," Ireland added. He said Houston "figures to overpower us on the boards, but I think our speed and quickness can surprise them."

Another unbeaten team, third-ranked St. Bonaventure, risks its 22-0 record against Boston College at Kingston, R.I. in one of the other six first-round games Saturday in the NCAA.

Columbia battles LaSalle and Davidson meets St. John's of New York in an afternoon doubleheader at College Park, Md., Florida State takes on East Tennessee and Marquette faces Bowling Green at Kent, Ohio. Rounding out the first round is New Mexico State against Weber State in the other half of the twin-bill at Salt Lake City.

North Carolina and Duke, fifth and sixth ranked in the Associated Press poll, won their first-round games in the Atlantic Coast Conference championship at Charlotte Thursday night.

North Carolina, paced by 31 points from All-American Larry Miller, whipped Wake Forest 83-70. Duke overcame Clemson's slowdown tactics to beat the Tigers 43-40 on six free throws in the closing minutes.

In the semifinals tonight, Duke is pitted against North Carolina State and North Carolina takes on South Carolina. N.C. State advanced by beating Maryland 63-54 and South Carolina whipped Virginia 101-78.

The winner of the ACC final Saturday night automatically lands a berth in the NCAA with the runner-up going to the National Invitation Tourney in New York. South Carolina is ineligible for postseason play, however, so if the Gamecocks should win the ACC, the NCAA and NIT berths will go to the next placed teams.

The NIT, which opens next week, March 14, announced its pairings Thursday. The opening night doubleheader pits Marshall against St. Peter's and Oklahoma City against the ACC representative.

Fordham, which faces Duquesne in the NIT on March 16, finished its regular season by beating Manhattan 72-66 in the first game of a Madison Square Garden doubleheader. NYU downed Rutgers 56-49 in the second game.

Missouri routed Nebraska 91-70, Oklahoma defeated Colorado 84-78 and St. Louis vanquished Memphis State 77-65 in other major games on Thursday's slim national program.

Brundage Still Ignores Russian Boycott Threat

MOSCOW (AP) — The Russians are threatening to pull out, along with some 40 other nations, but Avery Brundage and host Mexico contend there is no change in plans for the Olympic Games.

"Everything is still as is," Brundage, the president of the International Olympic Committee said in Chicago Thursday after the Russians had delivered a sharply worded demand that South Africa be omitted from the Games.

And in Mexico City, site of the October Games, lodging control officer Ramon Alatorre said none of the nations that have announced their boycotts have yet canceled their room reservations.

The Russian demand, presented in the form of a resolution by the Soviet Olympic Committee, said:

"If the International Olympic Committee refuses to convene an emergency session and insists on its decision about South Africa, the USSR Olympic Committee will be impelled to reconsider the question of participation of Soviet sportsmen in the Summer Olympics in 1968."

Forty nations—including 32 from Africa—have announced their intention to boycott the 1968 Games because of readmission of South Africa, barred since 1963 because of its apartheid policy.

The boycotting nations complain that South Africa has not completely rescinded its policy.

The Russian action was expected. The Soviet Sports Federation had taken a similar stand earlier in the week. The Russian news agency, Tass, said the latest move came after a long meeting of Federation and USSR Olympic officials.

The news agency said the officials agreed that the entire Olympic movement is in jeopardy.

Brundage, at the urging of Mexican officials, has called a meeting of the nine-member IOC Council to reconsider the situation. The meeting is scheduled in Switzerland, probably in May.

The Council could recommend an emergency meeting of the 72-member IOC Assembly to take another vote on the controversial question of South Africa's readmission.

Frank Robinson Signs For Estimated $115,000

By HERSCHEL NISSENSON

Baltimore's Frank Robinson and Philadelphia's Johnny Callison finally set pen to paper Thursday but the New York Yankees still are having trouble putting bat to ball.

While Robinson was signing for about $115,000 with the Orioles and Callison was wrangling more than $40,000 from the Phillies, the best the weak-hitting Yankees could manage off a trio of Washington hurlers was three hits in squeezing out a 1-0 victory over the Senators in the first Grapefruit League exhibition.

"I didn't get exactly what I wanted, but I'm satisfied or else I would not have signed," said the 32-year-old Robinson, who won the Triple Crown while leading the Orioles to the 1966 world championship.

Robinson missed a month of the 1967 season with double vision after a baseline collision but still batted .311, second best in the American League. The slugging outfielder missed seven full days of practice but suited up soon after a signing and worked out.

Harry Dalton, Baltimore personnel director, said Robinson's contract makes him "one of the highest paid players in baseball history, probably the highest in the American League today."

Like Robinson, who had asked $125,000, Callison also had to compromise a bit.

"I didn't get what I wanted," Callison echoed, "but then, I didn't sign for what they wanted me to, either."

The right fielder, who slumped to a .261 batting average, 14 homers and 64 runs batted in last season, said he was in good shape—"the best shape I've ever been in"—and hoped to be in the exhibition lineup in about a week.

Callison said he was completely recovered from a torn knee cartilage and needed a week of batting practice to get his timing down.

The Yankees, meanwhile, looked much like last season's ninth-place good pitch-no hit club. The run came in the eighth inning on a delayed steal of home by outfielder Andy Kosco, drafted from the Minnesota Twins.

Kosco reached third on a single, infield out and wild pitch. When Ruben Amaro, who had walked, broke for second base, Washington catcher Bill Bryan tried to nail him and Kosco, not noted for his speed, beat the return throw home.

Right-handers Mel Stottlemyre, Bill Monbouquette and Jim Bouton scattered five Senator hits. Bouton, in what almost certainly is his last chance to regain the form that made him a 21-game winner in 1963, went three perfect innings and was the winning pitcher.

Five exhibition games are scheduled today with the rest of the teams swinging into action Saturday. Today's slate finds the American League champion Boston Red Sox playing the Chicago White Sox, Cincinnati vs. Philadelphia, Houston vs. Pittsburgh and Oakland vs. Detroit, all in Florida, while the Chicago Cubs meet San Francisco in Arizona.

BUD MANES

Bud Manes Leads Thiel Cage Squad

Thiel College closed the books on its first winning basketball season since 1940-41 with an 11-7 mark this past season.

Tomcat cagers, under the tutelage of Bud Manes, enjoyed their best won-lost percentage since 1939-40 with a .611 mark and the most wins since the 1923-24 team recorded 12.

The Tomcats started slowly, dropping their first two games, but picked up the pace with four straight wins. After losing the next three games, the Manesmen came on strong to win seven of their last eight contests.

In the Presidents Athletic Conference the Blue and Gold enjoyed their best showing ever, with an 8-4 record and a tie for second place. Along with a successful season, senior Jim Mondok broke the career scoring record when he chalked up 1,172 points.

The Thiel floor squad consisted of senior co-captains Jim Baird and Jim Mondok, two juniors, four sophomores and four freshmen. With an experienced nucleus returning Coach Manes is looking toward the conference title next season.

East Liverpool's Joe Massey averaged 11.4 points a game, third best on the team. He hit 37.9 per cent from the floor and 66.7 per cent from the foul line.

The Pittsburgh Area Basketball Writers named Manes Small College Coach of the Year for the 1967-68 season. The Thiel head mentor was honored for his team's record and a defense that ranks in the top 20 of the NCAA small colleges.

Manes was graduated from East Liverpool High School, where he lettered in wrestling and track. After serving four years in the United States Air Force he entered Thiel, earning three football letters and four awards in basketball. He served as captain of the cage team his last two years.

Upon graduate in 1958 Manes served as basketball coach at Cardinal High School, Middlefield, Ohio. The following year Thiel needed a freshman basketball coach and sought out one of its talented graduates.

The Tomcat head basketball position opened after Manes' first year and he was appointed to guide the Blue and Gold basketball fortunes. During this time he earned a M. A. degree from Westeern Reserve University.

For the past eight years Manes has been a member of the physical education staff, track coach, intramural director, football scouting assistant and he started cross country two years ago. He is also a major in the air force reserves at the Youngstown air base.

Waterford Night Racing Starts Mar. 18

Waterford Park will switch to night racing on Monday, March 18, it was announced yesterday by James F. Edwards, president.

This will mark the earliest start of night racing at Waterford since the track began racing under the stars three years ago. The switch was originally scheduled for Monday, April 1, but with the return of good weather after a severe winter the Waterford prexy believes that the early start will be beneficial to more people. Waterford currently is racing during the afternoon.

President Edwards also stated that the post time each evening will be the same as in the past, 7:15 p.m. with 10-race programs each Monday, Friday and Saturday. Nine races will make up the programs on the other week nights with the exception of holidays.

Waterford Park is the first thoroughbred track in the area to have racing at night. The day programs will continue the balance of this week and all of next week through Saturday, March 16.

Loyola Ramblers Ready For Top-Ranked Houston

By TED MEIER
Associated Press Sports Writer

If psychology can do it, the underdog Chicago Loyola Ramblers will score the biggest upset of the college basketball season by beating the top-ranked Houston Cougars in the first round of the NCAA championship tournament Saturday night.

The Ramblers, 16-8 for the season, go against the unbeaten 28-0 Cougars, led by the Big E, All-American Elvin Hayes, at Salt Lake City.

"Our players are all hopped up and we've sold them on the idea of beating Houston," said George Ireland, the Loyola coach who is no stranger to NCAA tournament competition. His Ramblers took the title in 1963 by beating Cincinnati. They were the underdogs then, too.

Ireland said if his players hit on their outside shots "then our full court press and the fast break at every opportunity may give Houston trouble."

"We kept telling our players all week to look at the papers so they could read they have no chance against Houston," Ireland added. He said Houston "figures to overpower us on the boards, but I think our speed and quickness can surprise them."

Another unbeaten team, third-ranked St. Bonaventure, risks its 22-0 record against Boston College at Kingston, R.I. in one of the other six first-round games Saturday in the NCAA.

Columbia battles LaSalle and Davidson meets St. John's of New York in an afternoon doubleheader at College Park, Md., Florida State takes on East Tennessee and Marquette faces Bowling Green at Kent, Ohio. Rounding out the first round is New Mexico State against Weber State in the other half of the twin-bill at Salt Lake City.

North Carolina and Duke, fifth and sixth ranked in the Associated Press poll, won their first-round games in the Atlantic Coast Conference championship at Charlotte Thursday night.

North Carolina, paced by 31 points from All-American Larry Miller, whipped Wake Forest 83-70. Duke overcame Clemson's slowdown tactics to beat the Tigers 43-40 on six free throws in the closing minutes.

In the semifinals tonight, Duke is pitted against North Carolina State and North Carolina takes on South Carolina. N.C. State advanced by beating Maryland 63-54 and South Carolina whipped Virginia 101-78.

The winner of the ACC final Saturday night automatically lands a berth in the NCAA with the runner-up going to the National Invitation Tourney in New York. South Carolina is ineligible for postseason play, however, so if the Gamecocks should win the ACC, the NCAA and NIT berths will go to the next placed teams.

The NIT, which opens next week, March 14, announced its pairings Thursday. The opening night doubleheader pits Marshall against St. Peter's and Oklahoma City against the ACC representative.

Fordham, which faces Duquesne in the NIT on March 16, finished its regular season by beating Manhattan 72-66 in the first game of a Madison Square Garden doubleheader. NYU downed Rutgers 56-49 in the second game.

Missouri routed Nebraska 91-70, Oklahoma defeated Colorado 84-78 and St. Louis vanquished Memphis State 77-65 in other major games on Thursday's slim national program.

BUD MANES

Bud Manes Leads Thiel Cage Squad

Thiel College closed the books on its first winning basketball season since 1940-41 with an 11-7 mark this past season.

Tomcat cagers, under the tutelage of Bud Manes, enjoyed their best won-lost percentage since 1939-40 with a .611 mark and the most wins since the 1923-24 team recorded 12.

The Tomcats started slowly, dropping their first two games, but picked up the pace with four straight wins. After losing the next three games, the Manesmen came on strong to win seven of their last eight contests.

In the Presidents Athletic Conference the Blue and Gold enjoyed their best showing ever, with an 8-4 record and a tie for second place. Along with a successful season, senior Jim Mondok broke the career scoring record when he chalked up 1,172 points.

The Thiel floor squad consisted of senior co-captains Jim Baird and Jim Mondok, two juniors, four sophomores and four freshmen. With an experienced nucleus returning Coach Manes is looking toward the conference title next season.

East Liverpool's Joe Massey averaged 11.4 points a game, third best on the team. He hit 37.9 per cent from the floor and 66.7 per cent from the foul line.

The Pittsburgh Area Basketball Writers named Manes Small College Coach of the Year for the 1967-68 season. The Thiel head mentor was honored for his team's record and a defense that ranks in the top 20 of the NCAA small colleges.

Manes was graduated from East Liverpool High School, where he lettered in wrestling and track. After serving four years in the United States Air Force he entered Thiel, earning three football letters and four awards in basketball. He served as captain of the cage team his last two years.

Upon graduate in 1958 Manes served as basketball coach at Cardinal High School, Middlefield, Ohio. The following year Thiel needed a freshman basketball coach and sought out one of its talented graduates.

The Tomcat head basketball position opened after Manes' first year and he was appointed to guide the Blue and Gold basketball fortunes. During this time he earned a M. A. degree from Westeern Reserve University.

For the past eight years Manes has been a member of the physical education staff, track coach, intramural director, football scouting assistant and he started cross country two years ago. He is also a major in the air force reserves at the Youngstown air base.

Waterford Night Racing Starts Mar. 18

Waterford Park will switch to night racing on Monday, March 18, it was announced yesterday by James F. Edwards, president.

This will mark the earliest start of night racing at Waterford since the track began racing under the stars three years ago. The switch was originally scheduled for Monday, April 1, but with the return of good weather after a severe winter the Waterford prexy believes that the early start will be beneficial to more people. Waterford currently is racing during the afternoon.

President Edwards also stated that the post time each evening will be the same as in the past, 7:15 p.m. with 10-race programs each Monday, Friday and Saturday. Nine races will make up the programs on the other week nights with the exception of holidays.

Waterford Park is the first thoroughbred track in the area to have racing at night. The day programs will continue the balance of this week and all of next week through Saturday, March 16.

Wilt Leads 76er Win; Rockets Beaten Again

By The Associated Press

Henry Finkel topped his entire 1966-67 season output, but he couldn't keep the San Diego Rockets from tying another National Basketball Association record for futility.

Finkel scored 41 points Thursday night, one more than he scored in 27 games as a rookie with the Los Angeles Lakers last season, as the Rockets lost to the Lakers 119-102.

For the Rockets, who have won just 15 times in 76 games, the loss was their 29th at home, tying an NBA record set by the 1964-65 San Francisco Warriors. Earlier this season, the Rockets lost 17 straight, which tied a league mark held by those same Warriors.

In other NBA games Thursday, Philadelphia topped Cincinnati 125-117, Chicago upset Boston 118-112 and St. Louis outlasted Seattle 150-133.

Finkel scored 29 of his team's 46 first-half points en route to a single-game record for the first-year-old club. The previous best San Diego scoring performance was 37 points by Don Kojis.

Los Angeles, which led by 10 at the half, was paced by Elgin Baylor, with 35 points, and Archie Clark with 28.

Philadelphia trailed 96-93 after three quarters, but spurted to victory as Wilt Chamberlain and Billy Cunningham each scored nine points and Hal Greer eight in the final period.

Chamberlain finished with 38 points and 28 rebounds. Greer scored 15 to push his NBA career total to 15,002. Oscar Robertson's 35 points led Cincinnati.

Chicago built up an 18-point lead late in the third period and then fought off a Boston rally for the Bulls' third victory over the Celtics in their two NBA seasons. Bob Boozer topped Chicago with 26 points. John Havlicek poured in 32 for Boston.

St. Louis went on an 11-point spree in the second quarter for a 56-52 halftime lead and Seattle could never get closer in the game at Portland, Ore. Len Wilkens scored 33 points for St. Louis, which clinched a tie for first place in the Western Division. Walt Hazzard and Rod Thorn each got 29 for Seattle.

Brundage Still Ignores Russian Boycott Threat

MOSCOW (AP) — The Russians are threatening to pull out, along with some 40 other nations, but Avery Brundage and host Mexico contend there is no change in plans for the Olympic Games.

"Everything is still as is," Brundage, the president of the International Olympic Committee said in Chicago Thursday after the Russians had delivered a sharply worded demand that South Africa be omitted from the Games.

And in Mexico City, site of the October Games, lodging control officer Ramon Alatorre said none of the nations that have announced their boycotts have yet canceled their room reservations.

The Russian demand, presented in the form of a resolution by the Soviet Olympic Committee, said:

"If the International Olympic Committee refuses to convene an emergency session and insists on its decision about South Africa, the USSR Olympic Committee will be impelled to reconsider the question of participation of Soviet sportsmen in the Summer Olympics in 1968."

Forty nations—including 32 from Africa—have announced their intention to boycott the 1968 Games because of readmission of South Africa, barred since 1963 because of its apartheid policy.

The boycotting nations complain that South Africa has not completely rescinded its policy.

The Russian action was expected. The Soviet Sports Federation had taken a similar stand earlier in the week. The Russian news agency, Tass, said the latest move came after a long meeting of Federation and USSR Olympic officials.

The news agency said the officials agreed that the entire Olympic movement is in jeopardy.

Brundage, at the urging of Mexican officials, has called a meeting of the nine-member IOC Council to reconsider the situation. The meeting is scheduled in Switzerland, probably in May.

The Council could recommend an emergency meeting of the 72-member IOC Assembly to take another vote on the controversial question of South Africa's readmission.

Frank Robinson Signs For Estimated $115,000

By HERSCHEL NISSENSON

Baltimore's Frank Robinson and Philadelphia's Johnny Callison finally set pen to paper Thursday but the New York Yankees still are having trouble putting bat to ball.

While Robinson was signing for about $115,000 with the Orioles and Callison was wrangling more than $40,000 from the Phillies, the best the weak-hitting Yankees could manage off a trio of Washington hurlers was three hits in squeezing out a 1-0 victory over the Senators in the first Grapefruit League exhibition.

"I didn't get exactly what I wanted, but I'm satisfied or else I would not have signed," said the 32-year-old Robinson, who won the Triple Crown while leading the Orioles to the 1966 world championship.

Robinson missed a month of the 1967 season with double vision after a baseline collision but still batted .311, second best in the American League. The slugging outfielder missed seven full days of practice but suited up soon after a signing and worked out.

Harry Dalton, Baltimore personnel director, said Robinson's contract makes him "one of the highest paid players in baseball history, probably the highest in the American League today."

Like Robinson, who had asked $125,000, Callison also had to compromise a bit.

"I didn't get what I wanted," Callison echoed, "but then, I didn't sign for what they wanted me to, either."

The right fielder, who slumped to a .261 batting average, 14 homers and 64 runs batted in last season, said he was in good shape—"the best shape I've ever been in"—and hoped to be in the exhibition lineup in about a week.

Callison said he was completely recovered from a torn knee cartilage and needed a week of batting practice to get his timing down.

The Yankees, meanwhile, looked much like last season's ninth-place good pitch-no hit club. The run came in the eighth inning on a delayed steal of home by outfielder Andy Kosco, drafted from the Minnesota Twins.

Kosco reached third on a single, infield out and wild pitch. When Ruben Amaro, who had walked, broke for second base, Washington catcher Bill Bryan tried to nail him and Kosco, not noted for his speed, beat the return throw home.

Right-handers Mel Stottlemyre, Bill Monbouquette and Jim Bouton scattered five Senator hits. Bouton, in what almost certainly is his last chance to regain the form that made him a 21-game winner in 1963, went three perfect innings and was the winning pitcher.

Five exhibition games are scheduled today with the rest of the teams swinging into action Saturday. Today's slate finds the American League champion Boston Red Sox playing the Chicago White Sox, Cincinnati vs. Philadelphia, Houston vs. Pittsburgh and Oakland vs. Detroit, all in Florida, while the Chicago Cubs meet San Francisco in Arizona.

Junior Editors Quiz on PERSPECTIVE

ANSWER: One reason is an illusion called perspective. The ties in (A) may be exactly the same size; but arranged under a railroad track they seem to get progressively smaller as the distance increases until they vanish at a distant point (B). Hold a pencil close to your eye (C). It will look very big. Then move it away (D); it will look smaller. This is because the image on the back of your eye changed as you moved the pencil away. (E) shows the image produced when the pencil is close, (F) when further away. (F) is smaller than (E); the further away, the smaller the image. So, drawing familiar things, like a house, small, makes them look far away. You should remember, too, that much air lies between your eye and a far away thing like a mountain. Since light glints off particles in the air, this glinting makes distant objects look lighter; the scattering of blue rays in the air also makes them look bluer. Artists who paint landscapes in oils or watercolor can give a wonderful feeling of depth to their pictures by using the principles we have mentioned.

Ann Landers

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Ann Landers: I'm going with a very nice girl. In fact she's the finest young woman I've ever dated. There's only one problem — and it really didn't bother me very much until lately. Sally lisps.

When I introduced her to my sisters they were very cordial to her face, but the next day they greeted me with, "Thay now, about that Thally — she's thum thweetie-pie."

I didn't realize Sally's lisp was so pronounced. One of my sisters said that in my case love was not only blind, but deaf as well. Now that they've made such a big deal out of it, I'm wondering if a person who lisps can be cured of it. Can you tell me? — CONCERNED.

Dear Concerned: A lisp can be corrected, but the method depends on what is causing the lisp. A speech therapist should make the determination. It could be the teeth, a malformation of the tongue or a faulty palate arch.

Your sisters sound as friendly as a pack of jackals. Has anyone ever told them it's in terrible taste to make fun of a physical disability? If not, may I be the first?

Cash Register Rings

Dear Ann: I've been married to a professional man for 13 years. The first years were not easy, but now we are making real progress and the hard work is paying off. We have a lovely home and three children, and I'm beginning to enjoy life. I think my husband is, too. With another female.

My family and friends probably would be horrified at my attitude but I don't mind if my husband has a little fling, just as long as he doesn't appear in public with the broad. I view my 13 years of hard work as an investment and I don't want anyone else to cash in on the upcoming benefits, which promise to be considerable.

I've heard most men start to get foolish at 50. My husband is 15 years ahead of schedule. I don't want a lecture on morals, all I want to know is how to prevent this man of mine from roaming too far off the ranch. — THINK TANK.

Dear Think: The cash register in the background is making so much noise I can scarcely concentrate on an answer, but I'll do my best.

Don't nag. Don't play detective. Don't attempt to extract any confessions. And don't bug him. Try to figure out what he finds about "the broad" that is so attractive. Make your best effort to furnish him with something at least as good — maybe better.

Last Resting Place

Dear Ann: I know you'll come up with the right answer to this and when you do it will look so simple I'll wonder why I couldn't figure it out myself.

My mother came to visit three months ago and became gravely ill. She's in her late 70s and the doctors have told me the end can come any time.

She has said she wants to be buried in Oklahoma, near Dad, but I happen to know there is no plot available near him. If I buried Mother here I could look after her grave, which I could not do otherwise.

I'm reluctant to bury her here, however, because all her friends and favorite clergyman are in Oklahoma. She would have a big funeral there and a small one here.

I'm so upset over this I can't sleep. What's the answer? — CONFUSED IRENE.

Dear Confused: Bury your mother in Oklahoma, where she has friends and a favorite clergyman. Select a plot as near your dad as possible, and please accept my deep sympathy, Irene.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Review, enclosing a self-addressed, stamped envelope.
